Coal Tie-Up In Central Fields Seems Inevitable

Illinois Operators Stand Firm On View Not To Raise Wages

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETS IN SESSION

Complete Suspension April 1 Appears Inevitable, Says Leader

BY FRED J. WALKER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, March 30.—Complete suspension of soft coal mining in the central competitive union field on April 1, when the Jacksonville wage scale agreement expires, appeared inevitable today.

The Coal Operators Association of Illinois was standing pat on its announced policy of shutting down its mines unless the United Mine Workers indicate they will consider lower wages, and informal advices to Rice Miller, president, were that operators in other fields were in a like temper.

Executive Board Meets.

The executive board of the association was called into session today but little beyond discussion of a course of action after the suspension, was expected of it.

'As far as the Illinois field is concerned," said Miller, "there will be no attempt to run the mines with

Scholastic Standing Of New Castle Players Commented Upon

Recognizing the splendid record made this season in winning the basketball championship of the W. P. I. A. L. and being semi-finalists in the state championship tourney, the Lions club gave a testimonial banquet to the New Castle high school basketball team, coaches and school authorities at the Scottish Rite cathedral on Tesusday evening, March 29.

Members of the squad and the student manager were present solid gold basketballs by the Lions as a memento of the occasion. Dwight Beede, former Carnegie Tech captain, and coach of football at Westminster, was the principal speaker and lauded the boys for their hard work, integrity and courage.

Beginning at 6:30 with an excellent dinner the Lions staged one of their typical enthusiastic and peppy meetings and as soon as the dinner dishes were removed the program of the evening was started.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the high schol orchestra. Paul Welsh led the singing.

In welcoming the basketball team members, Rev. D. C. Schnebly said that he felt he was the granddaddy of the high school teams inasmuch as he had been coach at F. & M. at a time when Coach Phil Bridenbaugh was playing quarterback and was also a member of the basketball and track teams. He paid a tribute to Mr. Bridenbaugh as a player and also as a coach. Lion Schnebly termed the result of the season's work as a just reward for arduous work and fair play, and in the name of the Lions club and the citizens of New Castle expressed appreciation for their clean and manly play.

Gardner Introduces Team.

At this time King Lion Wayne Stitzinger called upon Faculty Manager Ralph Gardner to introduce the team members and this Mr. Gardner did with an introductory address in which he stated that the team represented a number of different nationalities, but that all of the boys were gentlemen and good students. Prof. Gardner paid a compliment to the citizens of New Castle for not interfering in any way with the conduct of athletics here, stating that in various cities of the W. P. I. A. L. territory considerable complaint had been made that townspeople had a habit of in-

Two Thousand Flee From Homes In Arkansas As Water Spreads

Residents Are Warned In Time To Make Their Escape

(International News Service)
MEMPHIS, March 30.—Two thousand persons, driven from their homes last night when the Laconia Circle levee tumbled into the river and flooded 19 square miles of farm lands, were being housed today in box cars and tents at Helena and Snow Lake, Ark.

On opening in the levee created by the crumbling banks let the 51 foot swollen Mississippi river rush into the Circle, and flooded 12,350 acres of farm lands and drove 1800 negroes and 200 white persons from their homes.

Warned that the break had occurred by shrilling whistles of two dredge boats standing by, residents fled before the on rush of the waters and belief was expressed that none had lost their lives.

Laborers since Sunday had been at work at another dangerous spot, warding off a possible break with sandbag reinforcements. The Missouri Pacific railroad, which had been hauling sandbags to the weakening points without charge carried many families to safety.

SHANGHAI, March 30.—Anti-foreign ardor continues to spread in China today, and the entire coastal region seems in ferment.

Thirteen Americans are isolated at Hoihow on Hainan Island, according to the French authorities, and grave fears are felt for their safety. It is recommended that a warship be sent there to investigate.

Fear 250 Miners Are Entombed In Cresson Mine

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CRESSON, Pa., Mar. 30. — Officials of the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Company whose Ehrenfeld, Pa., mine was shaken by an explosion today, told International News Service this afternoon that 250 miners are believed entombed.

The Ehrenfeld mine is one of the largest in Cambria county. It normally employs from 500 to 600 miners.

Although the blast did not occur in the main passageway, company officials believe 250 men were working in the wrecked channel.

All of these men were entombed about 12:20 p. m.

A general alarm was spread to all mining communities throughout the district and they responded immediately with rescue equipment and with trained mine rescue crews.

At 1:45 p. m., twelve rescue crews were at the mouth of the mine and ready to take their turns at burrowing through the debris to the entombed miners as soon as the gas has cleared sufficiently to permit their entrance.

RUM RUNNERS ARE BLAMED FOR OFFICER'S DEATH

Lancaster Police Running Down Clues In Death Of Lieutenant

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Lancaster police today are trying to trace in this city laundry marks on a suit of pajamas and several shirts found in a handbag against which the slain body of Police Lieutenant Elwood Gainor, Lancaster, was propped in a sparsely settled section of Upper Darby township, Delaware county, yesterday. The police plan to visit every laundry in this city in their determined search for additional clues to the murderers.

That Philadelphia rum runners may be implicated in the slaying was learned today from Chief of Police Guy Eckman of Lancaster after Chief Harry W. Sheain of Sharon Hill received a report from a motorist that an auto containing several men speeded over the Lancaster pike towards this city early yesterday. The motorist explained he was halted and asked the way to a hospital. He said a man was groaning on the floor in the rear of the machine. The man was reported covered with an auto robe similar to the one found near Gainor's body.

Attempts will also be made to trace several handkerchiefs found in the bag bearing the initials "C" and "G".

The murder of the police official has been attributed to a rum-running gang whose activities were curtailed by Gainor's zeal in performing his duty.

The body of the slain lieutenant will be shipped from Drewes' morgue in Upper Darby to Lancaster at 10:25 this morning. The funeral will be held Friday, it is understood.

BELL'S APPEAL IS NOT GRANTED

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Mar. 30.—The Pennsylvania supreme court today refused to allow a reargument of the appeal of John A. Bell, aged bankrupt financier, convicted of embezzlement in connection with the failure of the Bell banks in Carnegie, Pa.

Notice of the refusal was handed Bell's counsel by Pier Dannals, Prothonotary of the supreme court.

The supreme court, meeting in Philadelphia, had already upheld the superior court's decision which found Bell guilty. As a result Bell must serve his sentence of six and a half years in the county jail and pay a fine of $19,000, unless an appeal to the U. S. supreme court is taken.

"Co-operative King" And Dynamic Senator Present Strange Contrast

REED SCORES WITH OLD LAW PAPERS

Reed Hammers At Sapiro's Statement Concerning $400,000 Earning

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

FEDERAL BUILDING, DETROIT, March 30.—Aaron Sapiro, the so-called "co-operative king", was pilloried today on the rack of cross-examination at the million-dollar Ford-Sapiro libel suit in federal court.

Before a crowded courtroom and a jury that hung on every word, Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, delved into the forgotten past of Sapiro and into every detail of his amazing rise to power in the American farm world.

Reed hammered away at Sapiro's statement that he earned $400,000 from his professional practice in the years 1916 to 1926.

Present Contrast

Reed and Sapiro presented a strange contrast. The senator, white-haired and deliberate, growled his questions, sometimes with a sneer in his voice and always in tones that expressed doubt of Sapiro. The "wheat king", black-haired and infectuous, replied in a soft voice, sometimes with a break in tones as though he had choked on a sob.

Reed went back to 1916 to open the cross-examination. He first asked Sapiro how he and Philip Ehrlich, San Francisco attorney, split their law fees. Sapiro said he got 60 per cent and Ehrlich got 40 per cent. Then Reed wanted to know what share of the fees went to Sapiro in all other law firms in which he had a membership. Usually, Sapiro said, he got 60 per cent of the fees.

Western Pennsylvania Bituminous Fields Buzz; Suspension Time Nears

Pittsburgh Coal Company Reports Objections To Miners' Latest Offer

Terminal Coal Company May Operate Mines With Non-Union Labor

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Mar. 30.—With the nation-wide bituminous coal suspension only thirty-six hours away, Western Pennsylvania where the effect of the wage controversy admittedly will be felt most, today buzzed with activity.

Officials of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, the largest mining company in this region, made it plain that they were not considering the latest proposal of the United Mine Workers, which would permit operations after March 31, under separate wage agreements.

The Pittsburgh Coal company has been operating its mines on the open shop plan for over a year and will continue to do so, officials said. While union leaders claim operations at the eighteen Pittsburgh Coal Company mines will be seriously impaired by the suspension, company officials claimed the union's appeal to the non-union miners to join the walkout would

Chinese Mobs Make Attack Upon French

BY ALFRED MEYER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SHANGHAI, (Midnight) March 30.—Chinese mobs made attacks upon the barricades about the French concession tonight.

Arthur Mometer

The steaks and chops of the big hotels, the salads and viands rare, look mighty good when you stay home and think of their bill of fare. The lights and the music and seasoned food, for class seem to have the call, but while they are tasty I grant you that, it isn't long till they pall. You may have the food of the big hotels, but the thing that appeals to me, is some home made sandwiches built up thick, and a couple of cups of tea. There isn't a band there to stir you up, nor shimmering lights turned low, but the taste is there and contentment too, which are better for one to know. Just a cup of tea and a cake or two and faces loved ones there, these are the viands that seem to me, the tastiest bill of fare. I may be a yokel, perhaps I am, but this is the thing I say, the home cooked meals are the best of all, it's 46 today.

$100,000,000 In Wyoming Coal Land In Court

Big Legal Battle Stirs Interest Of State In Title Dispute

Dispute Was Begun Four Years Ago With Charges Of Embezzlement

(International News Service)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 30.—Northern Wyoming is stirred over a legal battle being waged at Gillete in Campbell county to decide title to a valuable coal field near there in which coal worth in excess of $100,000,000 lies waiting for an operator capable of exploiting the field.

The dispute began four years ago when Mark Shields then president of the bank of Gillette spent $200,000 said to have been bank funds to erect a plant and extract 111 million tons of coal from the land held by him and a partner Sam Ditto.

In 1923, faced with charges of embezzlement Shields committed suicide.

A suit for $15,000 based on a lien in behalf of miners and a former manager of the mine has been filed in Gillett and a firm of Ohio capitalists are reported to be trying to clear theirasserted title to the property acquired several weeks ago.

Lease Was Sold.

Following Shields death in 1923 the lease on the property containing the coat which involved a ten cent per ton royalty to the United States government was sold for $25,000 to F. C. Haymond of Newcastle. former district judge and B. F. Thoeming a partner.

In 1924 shortly after the above transaction Raymond and Thoeming sold their lease to C. P. Abrogast of Casper for $25,000 and an additional six per cent per ton royalty above the government claim. The company organized by Abrogast quickly went into receivership and development of the 1,000 acre coal field was at a standstill.

Who Will Profit.

A few weeks ago representatives of an Ohio company bought the lease of Ditto original partner with Shields which was again authenticated by the government and the filing of the miners suit reopened the question of who will profit by the immense wealth contained in the field.

R. C. Henderson a mining engineer who admits he is acting for "Ohio interests" declares that there are at least 111 million tons of coal "in sight" in the field under dispute. The formation lies to that all may be mined by the strip method for 60 cents per ton he said

The fight over the $15,000 wages due former miners who worked for Shields is destined to involve scores of prominent citizens of Northern Wyoming in the effort to decide who is to profit by the disputed rich deposit.

A true village is a place where you can back up to something and scratch when you feel that way.

be ignored by all but a few of their men.

Baker Is Silent

Horace F. Baker, president of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Co., the largest union operator in this field, said he preferred to reserve comment until the suspension becomes effective.

Since it became apparent that a suspension was inevitable because of the failure of the operators and union officials to negotiate a new wage contract before the expiration of the Jacksonville agreement on March 31, it has been rumored here that the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Co., would try to operate its mines with non-union labor. Baker would not discuss the report.

Philip Murray, International vice president of the United Mine Workers, who will direct the union's course in the East, said he was confident that a number of smaller Western Pennsylvania operators would take advantage of the union's offer to keep the mines in operation pending a settlement of the wage controversy, by continuing to pay the present wage scale until a new one is negotiated.

Murray's office was busy issuing detailed instructions to local unions throughout the district which will govern their actions during the suspension.

Miller said he knew of no Illinois companies that expected to sign individual temporary extensions of the existing contracts.

terfering and demanding certain things detrimental to the sport.

Following the introduction of the team and student manager, Attorney Clarence A. Patterson in an appropriate speech presented the basketballs, the gift of the club to the team. Those receiving the awards were Ralph Bishton, student manager; Mike Kulich, Glenn Thomas, Clark McClelland, Charles Richards, John Johnson, Arthur SiHman, Paul Reider, Tony Ostrosky, Clarence Klaber, Bruce Franklin and Walter McGrath.

Captains Klaber and McGrath responded for the team and thanked the Lions for the testimonial and the awards.

Coach Bridenbaugh in his address remarked that the W. P. I. A. L. championship was harder to win than the state title, for there was so many good teams competing it took better basketball. Bridenbaugh paid a tribute to Steelton and said that without a doubt it was the best team in the state tourney. Making no alibi for their defeat and stating that the officiating was fair, he declared that it was a handicap to New Castle and Sharon also. Eastern men were handling the games and their methods are different than in the western part of the state and their calling of fouls more strict. This almost caused the loss of the game with Phillipsburg, he stated.

Coaches Klee and Thomas were introduced and were given enthusiastic applause.

Boys on Honor Roll.

Principal F. L. Orth of the high school stated that the present team was an exception to many in that every member of the squad has passed his studies with good grades and that half of the boys were on the honor roll when the last reports were given out a few weeks ago. This, he contended, offset the oft repeated remark that the school athletes knew nothing but ball playing.

Superintendent C. C. Green commented on this in his remarks and stated that he had come to the conclusion that athletics and studies were not incompatible and that directed athletics were an asset to any institution. He spoke briefly on loyalty and stated that loyalty consisted in sticking to the team when it was losing, that it was only enthusiasm that held people to a winning combination.

Dwight Beede was the last speaker of the evening, and he told many incidents that made athletic teams great and emphasized the need of hard work, courage and integrity. He told of pointing of his team for its great battles last year and how every thought of the players was on the game. He complimented the local team for its playing qualities and also for its fine manner and bearing in victory and defeat.

suit, involving Sapiro and two of his former law partners, David and Lawrence Levy. Sapiro said he never read the paper and upon objection of his counsel the court would not allow Reed to ask questions on the case.

Reed invoked all courtroom tricks to no avail. Time and again he apparently forgot dates or confused Sapiro's replies, but the "cooperative king" never wavered.

Before Sapiro resumed the stand the court laid down a new rule limiting each side to 10 minutes' argument on all points of law. Heretofore some of the arguments have lasted a day, until they seemed like the senatorial filibusters against which Reed protested in the closing days of the last Congress.

Sapiro told of establishing his law practice in Chicago in September, 1924. He severed all connection with his old California law firm January 1, 1925.

Reed's questions jumped. Sapiro said he received $100 a month in 1917 as attorney for the California State Fish Exchange. He got the appointment from Col. Harris Weinstock, California market director.

The first co-operative which Sapiro served as attorney was the Poultry Producers of Northern California. That was in 1916 and Sapiro got $100 a month. It was the beginning of his long climb to fame and fortune.

state department today—Ichang, 800 miles up the Yangtse river, where at last reports there were 28 Americans.

There is considerable anti-foreign agitation there, he reported and "unfavorable reaction is expected."

Americans fleeing from the wrath of Chinese along the Yangtze river must run a virtual gauntlet for nearly 1,000 miles before they reach a safe portal in Shanghai.

The immense stretch of territory in which Americans are scattered in misisons or in business was emphasized by officials here today in expressing renewed fears for the rescue of hundreds of foreigners.

The American and other foreign gunboats and destroyers, it was said by naval officers, must patrol the river for a distance greater than the length of the Mississippi river. Throughout the perilous journey with rescued foreigners from the up-river cities the ships are subject to fire by Chinese snipers from both banks.

With Nanking evacuated and most of the foreigners already fleeing from cities nearer Shanghai growing fear was felt for those deeper into the recesses of the Yangtze valley, the scene of the recent triumphs of the Chinese Nationalists.

Latest reports indicated that many Amreicans were still in the vicinity of Hankow, 600 miles up the river and center of one of the greatest industrial regions of China. Hankow is now securely in the hands of the Nationalists.

Beyond this city are the famous gorges of the Yangtze through which ships must travel to reach the remote foreign settlements. Not only are the gorges, said to exceed those of the Colorado river in grandeur, dangerous for steamer travel but make steamers easy prey for a well organized attack from shore.

Sugar Trees On Local Farms Are Beginning To Dry

Season Has Not Been A Good One Owing To Weather Conditions This Spring

If you are city broke and bred and never lived even for a single year in the country you may appreciate the sugar making season, now being brought to a close on some Lawrence county farms. No farmer ever made a large amount of money operating a sugar bush but it is a between season occupation, a sort of "filler" between winter and spring.

This year's season has not ben good. It is freeze and thaw that makes the sap run, cold nights and warm days. The weather this spring has lacked the necessary freezing qualities but a few farmers report a fairly good run of sap.

There is no sugar nor molasses better than maple but it it is work and hard work to produce it. The trees must be "tapped" by boring a hole with an auger and inserting a "spipe" through which the sap runs into a bucket. It must then be gathered in barrels. Usually a low sled known as a stoneboat is used in hauling the barrels from tree to tree.

The sap is then placed in kettles or pans and boiled until it thickens into molasses. If sugar is wanted it is boiled still thicker and stirred with a pot stick or paddle until it granulates. The little maple sugar cakes sen in store windows are made by pouring the thick molasses into pans after it has boiled to the point where it will solidify when dropped into a glass of cold water.

CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

GENIUS AND WIT

Irvin S. Cobb was in my office for a few minutes the other day. I reminded him of our first meeting, several years ago, in Minneapolis. Cobb was resting over Sunday at the Radisson hotel, and I went over from St. Paul to interview him for the St. Paul newspaper for which I was working.

That Sunday the tide in the affairs of Cobb were running strong. He had a pain in his ample abdomen. That pain, a few days later, laid him low, and he had an operation for the removal of his appendix. As a result, he wrote his "Speaking of Operations," undoubtedly the funniest thing ever written about a serious illness. Cobb was not unknown before that, of course. But his real fame as a humorist dates from the publication of "Speaking of Operations."

I spent a couple of hours with Cobb that Sunday in Minneapolis. He was feeling decidedly ill, but the novelty of the pains he was experiencing served to sharpen his wit.

"I can't sleep," he told me. "I've been traveling on trains a good deal lately, and sleeping all right. But something keeps me from sleeping in this hotel. I guess I'll have to get somebody to drop a cinder in my eye, and then I'll be able to sleep, just as though I were still on the train."

Do you get a smile out of that? Well, when Cobb said it, I laughed until I was ashamed of myself. It was genuine wit.

Cobb is, in my opinion, one of our first-rate American geniuses. He has written several excellent short stories. One of them, called "The Great Auk", has always seemed to me one of the best in English. Just one great story justifies a genius. Cobb has written several that are better than what we usually call "unusually good". And his lighter labors, his mere witticisms, have amused millions.

This man is a genius and wit. One of the most distinguished Americans. And I do not agree with those who like to call him the homeliest man. I like his looks almost as well as his writings.

So today this column flies the flag for Irvin S. Cobb—a great American.

AUTO MAKER IS HURT WHEN CAR RUNS INTO TREE

about 8:30 Sunday evening. His little Ford coupe plunged down an embankment and crashed into a tree.

The billionaire was knocked unconscious but after a while regained his senses and walked several hundred feet to his estate. There the gate keeper found him and rushed him to his house.

R. E. McClure, chief physician at the Henry Ford hospital, attended the auto king and last night ordered him removed to the hospital for a minor operation.

A formal statement issued by Ford's counsel at the trial reads as follows:

At 8:30 p. m. Sunday, March 27, a Ford coupe driven by Henry Ford and occupied alone by him, was forced off the south drive of Michigan avenue a few feet east of the Rouge river bridge, and plunged down a steep embankment into a tree. Mr. Ford states that he was forced over the embankment by a car which came upon him from behind as he emerged from the driveway of the Ford laboratories at Dearborn. After a period of unconsciousness, Mr. Ford walked with difficulty several hundred feet to the gate keeper on his estate who summoned Mrs. Ford.

"Dr. R. D. McClure, chief surgeon of the Henry Ford hospital, was immediately called and remained with the injured man until Tuesday night, when he was removed in an ambulance to the Henry Ford hospital where he is now undergoing treatment. There has been a minor operation.

"Because of the lawsuit now in progress and the unavoidable and unfounded inferences that may be drawn, the facts were withheld from the public although communicated to the court Monday morning.

"Today, however, it developed that the newspapers had somehow obtained information, and a statement is issued.

"Mr. Ford strongly deprecates the suggestion that the accident was the result of intent on anyone's part.

"At present Mr. Ford is resting easily and no serious complications are expected.

"On Sunday night Mr. Ford had gone to his garage, taken out his coupe and driven alone to the Dearborn offices, were only watchmen were on duty. This custom of going about alone at all hours has caused concern to his friends but no amount of counsel has availed to change it. As a result, only the garage man and Mrs. Ford knew that he was out, until the gatekeepers alarm following the accident."

The news about Ford's accident came while Aaron Sapiro, so-called wheat king was on the witness stand at the trial in federal court.

PASSING OF AN INSTITUTION

THE country store is passing. It is going to join the covered wagon, the town pump and the ox team. Thousands of them still keep their old estate, but in other thousands glittering fixtures, plate glass showcases, gilt cash registers and steam heat have supplanted the wood stove, the upend nail kegs, the cracker barrel and the dry goods box handy for the whittler's blade.

With its mingled smells of new rope, kerosene, yellow soap, coffee, cheese, plug cut and calico the country store is an institution as American as green corn and apple pie. If it is the will of the ruthless gods of commerce to destroy this institution it will be to the great loss and with the great regret of the vast rural population of the nation.

What the department store is to the city the cross roads general store has been to the country. It has the compendiums of the wants of man. It has been even more than that, for through it the farmer and his good wife were able to convert butter and eggs into shoes and sealing wax.

What the club is to the city the general store has been to the country. The country store has been the forum and intellectual arena of a large area of this broad country. These countless centers for rustic gathering have been the fountainheads of those rivulets of politics and opinion that joined themselves into irresistible floods of national opinion.

Rural America is in process of transformation and every step in that process brings nearer to obsolenscence the country store of song and story, of the jester's fling and the cartoonist's pencil. The hot-dog stand, roadside garage and tea house are aiding in the extermination but can never take the place of this pioneer institution.

TOO MANY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

THE New York legislature adjourns with the launching of nine constitutional amendments for the electarote to accept or reject next November. Four others were adopted which must be reaffirmed at another session in 1928 before they go before the judgment of the people. Nine amendments are said to be a record number for New York. Like the books in Herodotus's history, there is one for each of the Muses.

Pennsylvania will go New York one better, submitting ten amendments to the general referendum if they win second assent in the present legislature. They were promulgated in the 1925 session and the extra session last year. After the voters pass upon these, they will not face a similar responsibility for five years, since the Supreme Court has lately pointed out that this constitutional interval must be observed. The accumulation in five years is likely to be impressive.

Yet New York has more excuse for multiplying these plebiscites than Pennsylvania, suggests the Inquirer of Philadelphia. The legislature at Harrisburg may deal with many matters which the body at Albany has to pass on to the people. One of the proposals in the present grist, for instance, has to do with city annexations. Here the present legislature has already acted on a similar question, not being required to appeal to the citizens to sustain the action. It is one of the powers which we delegate to our representatives that the Empire State does not.

It is a grave question, however, whether the best government is practical under a system that submits too many matters of administrative policy to a people indifferent about all but the most important issues. Oregon and certain Western States have made blankets of their ballots with initiative and referendum subjects. Popular interest has declined with the surfeit.

NAMING LOCOMOTIVES AGAIN

THOSE who were small boys a half century ago or thereabout remember the time when locomotives, like Pullman cars, had names. If they lived near a railway they had most of these names by heart and were quick to detect a new one. Numbers are far less interesting, as well as less easily remembereed.

Now we are told that twenty new locomotives on the Baltimore and Ohio are to bear the names of the first twenty presidents of the United States, and are also to be painted in olive green with stripes of red and gold. If the fashion spreads our railways will be much more picturesque. The old-time locomotive was resplendent in shining brass, very different from the huge black monster of today, which is impressive enough, but certainly not beautiful.

It would be an almost impossible task, perhaps, for the modern railway system to name all its locomotives. But George Washington or Thomas Jefferson might well be assigned to draw the newest and finest flyer.

Just Folks

THE FAIRY'S HIDING PLACE

"Once there was a litle girl about as tall as you,
Her eyes were just the same as yours, a very lovely blue.
And she was just your age I think and had your hair of brown
And people used to says she was the nicest girl in town.

"In springtime when the tulips are in bloom just out of doors,
She had a little garden which was just the size of yours
And the fairies used to play there with that little girl like you
And dance among the blossoms just the way your fairies do.

"Well, one sunny lovely morning like those pretty days you know,
She couldn't find the fairy queen though she'd hunted high and low
She walked the garden over and a tear came in her eye
And she looked exactly like you when you pucker up to cry.

"I'm sorry I've forgotten where she found that fairy queen
Though she searched the garden over she was nowhere to be seen.
But I know she found her somewhere." And my little girl replied:
"She found her in a tulip. That's where fairies often hide."

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:22. Sun rises tomorrow 5:46.

It it getting so that the strongest and most modern jails are being broken open at will and crooks flee their walls most at will. The mind of the crook seems to be a few jumps ahead of the jail house makers so far.

The woman with unbobbed head often finds it hard to get a hat to fit and suit her. Hats are only being made for the flapper heads and the old-fashioned head will have to take what it can get.

The modern garages give people another place to hang themselves if they feel so inclined. In the old days the bar, smoke house, cellar or attic had to do.

A son of the King of England, Prince George, has won a Charleston contest. Democracy has hit even the kings household with a loud clatter.

There wasn't so much of a servant problem when the old-fashioned hired girl ate with the family.

This country seems to need two things most of all now—good cooks and good congressmen.

Probably there will be more of the boys learning the barber trade now that the girls are hanging around the shops.

We are in sympathy with the coal miners. No matter how much money they make we will not begrudge it to them. However it seems to us some time they should learn that striking never does their cause much good and it only gives them a rest and often they get very hungry.

Radio sermons are an awful crack at the collection plate.

People are trying to fool you all the year round but April 1st is the only time they will admit it.

By all means make a garden this spring. If not a vegetable garden make it a flower garden. There is great joy in seeing everything grow but weeds.

All some folks are thinking about these days is the kind of scenery they will deck themselves out on Easter Sunday.

When you hear a fellow say: "I wouldn't care if it wasn't for the principal of the thing" somebody has been tampering with is bank account.

After New Castle gets it's new hotel into operation this city is going to be a great convention center. Last week in McKeesport some merchants told us it was the greatest event in the history of that city in some years. Most of the delegates to the Rotary convention went there in automobiles and took their wives along and they left a lot of money in that city and all coming within a few hours ride of McKeesport it stands to reason they will go back when there is no convention there. New Castle is better situated to attract people than is McKeesport.

Six thousand cases of perfectly good pre-war liquor were destroyed by prohibition officers at Norfolk, Va. This in spite of the fact that hospitals in this country can hardly get any of the much needed and absolutely necessary liquor at any price or without much effort and red tape. There is still something wrong with our economical conditions.

Nothing makes its growth felt so much as a carbuncle unless it's an ingrowing toe nail. Those two things sure are the champion unpleasant subjects.

You can't start a fire in a furnace with a cigarette.

It is predicted that men will live to be 125 years old and old age will be of a few months instead of years. We are not going to worry about that as it will be too late to do us any good.

In many foreign countries they cut off the heads or hang the bozo who shoots off his bazoo detrimentally to the interests of the country he happens to be in at the time. We certainly approve of this and admit that it's effectiveness cannot be improved upon and we are sure it keeps the traps of many others tightly closed also.

Here is a Suggestion.

The following letter was sent to us by J. H. Hartland who is now in Florida. He will be home some time in the near future. This is a chance for some one who has the time and inclination to make things look nice in New Castle during the coming summer. We might be induced to offer a substantial prize.

I have read in the News twice now where you are trying to get the people to plant more flowers this spring. I have a plan to suggest and that is to have the women's clubs and churches take charge. Have them canvass the city. Then get the florists and the seed men together. Arrange a special week—call it Flower or Plant week. Have them run ads in the paper. Have them write up in the paper about the different plants and flowers. I know you will get results.

If they have that new thing in Washington for the control of air why don't they give us decent weather in March?

Perhaps the reason why boys are two and one-half inches taller now than 5 years ago is that they don't get "sat down on" so hard these days.

California wants our summer capitol in that state. It's a most unusual case of modesty on the part of California not to want the capitol all the year round.

The prize economical man is the fellow who gets married in his back yard so that the hens can get the rice.

According to strictly orthodox view that scientist who says that in a matter of two billion years the earth will be nothing but a frozen mass needn't worry; it won't be cold where he'll be.

While the government is looking for a dollar bill that will wear longer, most of us are vitally interested in bills that will stay with us longer.

The gold rush should help the shoe business. People ought to take a few extra pairs along for the return trip.

Those two Indians who ran 89 miles in 15 hours made some run. They might try for office on the strength of that.

The six weeks of groundhog weather are up and everyone must admit that the woodchuck failed to make good on his prediction this year. What we want to know now is what it is going to be for Easter for those who have pretty new things to wear.

Among the great peace-makers, the United States Marines are entitled to honorable mention.

Every man who has a good looking daughter from 16 years up has a parking problem in his own parlor.

The men who wrote the original Constitution evidently did a very good job. Most of the arguments that take place are about the amendments.

Discretion is the better of valor unles the other chap is smaller than you are.

Most of it is hard liquor these days—hard to get and hard to get over.

New York now has an establishment where legs are scientifically reduced or at least that is their boast. But how are they ever going to get any business. No woman will admit that her legs are not perfect.

It is just about the time of the year when political announcements for the primary this fall should be made. Many candidates are making word of mouth announcements and soon the fun will begin.

We All Know Them.

I cannot help but sympathize
With that poor drunkard, reeling,
The demon has him in his grasp,
From him there's no appealing,
In vain he strives to fight against
The forces downward dragging
His will is weak, his mind befoged,
And all his pow'rs are sagging.

I somehow can endure the sap
Who didn't know 'twas loaded,
And points the gun promiscuously
Until the thing's exploded.
He's merely thoughtless, unconcerned,
About fate's grim reaction,
The care that common sense suggests
For him has no attraction.

I even can forgive the chap
Who watches 'till I'm busy,
Then slyly sneaks up to the curb
And steals away my lizzy.
It isn't that he wants to harm
Or steal from off my body,
He merely wants to take a ride
And seeks a way that's shoddy.

But there is one I can't forgive—
The gump that heeds no bossing
And rushes headlong with the train
To beat it to the crossing.
If I should write his epitaph
'Twould be quite brief, thus reading:
"Here lies a dangerous maniac
Who met a train while speeding."

Russia is much excited about American and British "brutality" in China. Pravada, 100 per cent communist and anti-capitalist newspaper, says, "Your civilized herd had better know that 10,000,000 organized soviet proletarians curse you and demand hands off China."

Our answer is, "All right, let us get our missionaries, travelers and business managers out and you can have China."

Real Russians, in centuries past, have seen their villages invaded, cattle killed, women carried away by hordes of invading Mongolians. Russians do not like men with slanting eyes. They are infinitely more anti-Mongolian than anybody in this country. They know what Mongolia does on a march westward.

Let the United States study Japan and learn something in the way of common sense.

In the big war Japan stayed out, didn't send men or money, only a few military observers to learn what might be learned. Everybody in Europe is friendly to Japan. Everybody there hates us.

Now that the Japanese foreign office says it isn't going to send troops to China, but it will at once open negotiations requesting profound apologies and cash reparations for damage done to Japanese subjects in China. Compared with practical Japan we are feebleminded.

The big earthquake came in Armenia and a local religious personage explained it simply. A huge bull carries the world on its shoulders, and occasionally becomes fidgety. Then the earth rocks. The proper incantations, for which you pay a reasonable sum to the religious personage, pacify the bull and he again becomes quiet. Nothing simplier.

The human mind requests and accepts any "reasonable" explanation. Ancients believed that the giant Atlas held the world on his shoulders. When asked, "What does the giant stand on?" they replied, "On a big turtle." That satisfied everybody.

In Wall Street lately the world has been more or less balanced on the back of a gigantic bull, which occasionally becomes fidgety when a bear attacks it. But prosperity incantations pacify it and all is well.

At present it is safer to bet on the bull. "Big Steel" went to "a new high Monday.

Rich men pile up millions, build gigantic houses, die. Intelligent "real estaters" but the houses, tear them down.

The New York houses of Cornelius Vanderbilt, William H. Vanderbilt, W. K. Vanderbilt, are all in the hands of "house wreckers," also the gigantic, ugly palace built by Senator Clark of Fifth Avenue. One concern will buy the ceiling made from a gigantic British oak, said to have been two thousand years old. Another will buy the great fireplace of Vienna marble, for a moving picture theatre.

Thus passes the glory of the great, Papa builds, son and daughters say, "Too old-fashioned, tear it down."

The brilliant young Chinese leader of the revolutionists from South China, Chang Kai-Shek, says of his Chinese followers, "We want to get rid of the foreign yoke and save China from our own militarists who sell our riches to the foreigners."

Chang says also, "No man is too bad not to have enough rice, and no man is so good as to have too much to waste.

No wonder the Chinese millions, whose lives are unutterably miserable, follow a leader who says no man is so bad that he ought not "to have enough rice." Perhaps we have worried too much about the souls of the Chinese, and not enough about their supply of rice.

We forbid polygamy because Christianity forbids it. We say it is immoral.

In Egypt doctors of religious law, interpreting Mohammed's Koran, say monogamy is immoral. It is bad for women to be unmarried, and many must remain single if you don't let each man marry several women.

Mohammed said that a man should marry only as many women as he could make really happy. The modern Mohammedanism say that, in any case, a woman is happier married than unmarried.

A senate committee shows that ardent prohibitionists in six years spent $13,000,000 for prohibition. It seems a good deal, but is less than two cents per year per capita. You can't fight the demon rum, especially the bootleg demon rum, efficiently with that sum. Nevertheless, it would be interesting to know just how the $13,000,000 were spent.

In Day's News

Maxine Gorky, who has been signally honored by the Soviet Government in connection with the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the republic, has been called the greatest Russian novelist since Tolstoi. He was born in Nijni Novgorod in 1868. At 10 years of age he apprenticed himself to a shoemaker, with whom he led a life of horror for one year, and then shifted to work in a draftsman's office. A year later he ran away on a small river steamer, where for three years he served as a cook's boy. He afterwards became a baker and a street porter, later he joined a crowd of itinerant singers and sold apples about the streets of many Russian cities. He began to write in 1892 and almost immediately achieved fame. Soon his works were translated into almost every modern language. Of late years the novelist has made his home in Italy.

NUMBERS

It is an error to suppose that numbers are a purely artificial creation by men.

Numbers are inherent in the nature of things.

There was an old philospher who held that numbers were the secret of all things, and from some points of view he appears to be about right.

The universe seems to be constituted numerically. It sticks to certain numbers in certain things.

A man, for instance, has two hands, two feet and two ears. Rarely is a man born, except he be a freak, with more or less of these numbers. He began as a bi-ped and there is every prospect of his remaining so.

The earth makes its revolution around the sun in exactly the same number of hours every year.

The tides move with mechanical regularity.

The heart and lungs sustain their rhythmic motion.

If you will examine the way twigs come out of the stump of trees you will find that in each species they preserve a certain numerical relation.

Take a spiral thread and wind it about the trunk of a tree and you will find that the limbs come out at certain intervals. These intervals are the same in all maples and they differ from all pines.

Music is a mathematical affair, as the position and operation of tones bear a certain relation to each other which must be preserved.

Light travels with a certain number of vibrations every second, and all natural forces seem to be based upon some mathematical rule.

Altogether the whole universe seems to be planned with certain numbers in mind, and the science of mathematics is fundamentally a delving into the processes of nature.

It is not to be regarded as an artificial science, but one which has its roots in the nature of things.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

HEADS I WIN, TAILS YOU LOSE.

Ex-President Hadley of Yale University was a professor of economics of that institution of learning before he became its president. The particular economic hobby of Dr. Hadley was Railroad Transportation. He has written several books on this. They are different from many works written by political economists, in that they are very practical. He taught the undergraduates about railroad economics long before the Interstate Commerce Commission was ever created by Congress. He believed in the greatest freedom being given to all legitimate enterprises, the greatest encouragement to an enterprising citizen to expect the full benefit of the work of his brain, as well as of his hands. He always insisted that the enterprising citizen should never be limited to any amount of legitimate gain from his enterprise. He now is heard concerning the value of Section 15a of the Transportation Act. He condemns the principle which underlies, and even permeates all regulation, not only of railroad rates, but of gas and electric current charges as well. He says:

"The more progressive an industry is in its character and methods, the worse does the public suffer from any attempt to limit its owners to a fixed rate of profit. For each introduction of new methods of operation is an experiment; and no one knows in advance whether an experiment will turn out well. If the government says to the company, 'If you succeed you are limited to a normal rate of profit; if you fail your shareholders must stand the loss'—it is obvious that the experiment will not be made at all. The country that limits rates to 'a fair return on prudently invested capital' discourages just the sort of industrial enterprise which is the most effective means of lowering public service charges and keeping the nation in the forefront of progress."

The truth is, as the President Emeritus of Yale says, that we as a Nation have failed to recognize any general principles of rate making. This can be said of railroad regulation, at least, where the cost-plus-interest principle exerts a far less consistent influence than in the state regulation of gas and electric companies. It is probably useless to talk about ceasing to use that principle when it works to limit the owner's profit; it has obtained too firm a hold upon both political and popular imaginations to be dislodged. But it is entirely feasible to apply a part of Dr. Hadley's sound advice by wiping out the recaputre clause of the Transportation Act. The device so far from ever having had the justification of expedience, has worked only for harm. It is the perfect example of "heads I win, tails you lose." It is the principal reason why the railroads of the United States are still not as progressive as they easily might be, why they are unable to put science at work for cheaper transportation.

All citizens, whether acting as individuals or associated together as corporations, feel the weight of government interference. No profit fixing body created by the national government can provide for a minimum loss to any enterprise. The gentleman who sold his stock in a corporation last year at a profit of $15,000 invested $10,000 of it in a loan, which he believes will be a dead loss to him. He paid his income tax upon the profits made, and now asks how he will be protected in the event the loss which he fears actually happens. The answer is he will not be protected. He pays the Government now upon his profit, and unless he makes another great profit at the same time that he has to pocket his loss, he will get no credit from the government because of his loss. It is so with other enterprises. There are fat years, and there are lean years.

This condition only illustrates the destructive qualities of any Bureaucratic Government.

POEMS HOME

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"I Shall Not be Afraid" by Aline Kilmer.

Mrs. Kilmer is the widow of the late Joyce Kilmer who was killed in the World war. She has published three or four volumes of great distinction and I feel confident that a number of her briefer lyrics will have long life. Her work is important and she is singularly free from the danger of over-sentimentalism though she is not afraid to be thoroughly feminine first and last. She sees the beauty of the world, she sees the beauty of humanity, and she knew the beauty of love. In short she is an exquisite interpreter of life, a poet who of late has produced all too little. She seems to me one of the outstanding figures among the younger generation of singers in America.

I shall not be afraid any more,
Either by night or day;
What would it profit me to be afraid
With you away?

Now I am brave. In the dark night alone
All through the house I go,
Locking the doors and making windows fast
When sharp winds blow.

For there is only sorrow in my heart;
There is no room for fear.
But now I wish I were afraid
again,
My dear, my dear.

SINCLAIR KEEPS UP HIS BATTLE TO ESCAPE PRISON

Arguments Are Proceeding In Wealthy Oil Man's Case

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Harry F. Sinclair's fight to avoid jail was resumed in the district supreme court today with the beginning of arguments on the wealthy oil magnate's motion for a new trial in the recently concluded contempt proceeding.

Sinclair was convicted by a jury in Justice Hitz' court two weeks ago but will not be formally sentenced until the conclusion of arguments on the present motion for a new trial. The statute under which he was indicted carries a mandatory penalty of one month to one year in the district jail and a fine of $100 to $1000.

The next step in the ordinary course, should Justice Hitz deny the new trial, as seems likely, would be to carry the case to the district court of appeals, and thence to the supreme court.

Sinclair, lessee of the celebrated Teapot Dome, naval oil reserve, was convicted of contempt of the senate for having refused to answer certain questions of the senate oil committee in 1924. The unanswered questions had to do with the multi-millionaire oil man's negotiations with former secretary of the interior, Albert B. Fall. Both Fall and Sinclair await trial in the district court here next month on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in leasing negotiations.

Today's proceeding, however, was confined entirely to the contempt case, in which the defense attorneys, George P. Hoover, of Washington, and Martin W. Littleton, of New York, attacked the jury's verdict on 20 points of law and evidence.

Holds Troy Plan Not Constitutional

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., March 30.—A very important opinion was handed down by Judge William M. Parker of Venango county yesterday, who is holding court at Mercer, when he held that the Troy plan for the building of school houses is unconstitutional.

The Troy plan in brief is that a business organization be formed for the purpose of building school houses by a sale of bonds and then renting the building to boards of education on a long term lease during which funds other than principal and interest would be returned.

This opinion is very important for it is one of the few opinions handed down on this important subject. And a large number of buildings in the state have been built under this plan.

WOMEN by millions are discarding old-time "sanitary pads," unhygienic makeshift methods for a new way called Kotex.

✓ It discards as easily as tissue. No laundry, no embarrassment.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads, one now wears sheerest frocks and gowns with never a fear of embarrassment.

Another important factor, it deodorizes thoroughly, thus ending all danger of offending.

Doctors and nurses now widely urge it. 8 in every 10 better class women employ it.

Obtain at any store simply by saying "KOTEX." Box of 12 costs only a few cents. Be sure you get the genuine, for only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

After play—remove dirt, germs too

This purifying toilet soap keeps children safer!

YOUNGSTERS can't play and keep clean, too — neither can they escape germs.

Think of the dirt they get into—the much-handled things they have to touch. Toys, school-books, pets, playmates' grimy fingers — all these things, and many more, may transmit germs to the hands.

Health authorities say hands may carry germs of 27 diseases. See list above.

As a careful mother, you train your children to wash up after play. But "even if your hands look clean they may be covered with germs," says the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

To avoid needless risks, let your children—your whole family—use, always, the toilet soap that removes germs as well as dirt.

In 63,000 schools

Teachers in 63,000 schools—mothers in millions of homes—have found Lifebuoy keeps children cleaner—safer against disease.

Grown-ups, too, find it so refreshing that they prefer it for every toilet purpose.

Fine for the complexion

Lifebuoy keeps the skin so clear and smooth that millions use it regularly for skin health alone. And it's simply unsurpassed for keeping away perspiration odor!

Yet above all—Lifebuoy safeguards health. Its wonderful, penetrating, antiseptic lather removes both dirt and germs.

Millions love its hygienic scent

Lifebuoy is so different from other toilet and bath soaps that even its scent is different.

And read what this New Castle woman says:

When my husband comes home from work or when the children come in from play, I never feel satisfied until they have had a good wash-up with Lifebuoy. Then I feel that they are safe against the germs that they have been picking up everywhere all day long. And Lifebuoy makes the skin so very soft and smooth. It lathers so nicely and smells so clean that we all like to use it.

MRS. JENNIE JONES,
428 W. Grant St.,
New Castle, Pa.

From all over the country come letters like this. No wonder millions are turning to Lifebuoy.

Not a perfume, but a clean, pleasantly hygienic scent which proves Lifebuoy gives greater protection. Even before you've finished your first cake, you'll learn to love this cleanest of all soap scents, which quickly evaporates after rinsing. Without its antiseptic, Lifebuoy would still be a wonderful toilet soap—but you wouldn't get the same measure of protection.

Like millions of others, once you form the Lifebuoy habit, you'll wonder how any other soap ever satisfied you.

No extra cost for added safety

Lifebuoy costs no more—probably less—than the soap you now use—so the protection it gives you is actually free!

You can get Lifebuoy wherever soap is sold. Look for the red box—and orange-red cake, the color of its pure palm-fruit oils.

School Board At Uniontown Firm; Proctor Sticks

Despite Protests And Strikes By Students And Parents Board Holds Ground

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 30.—The Uniontown board of education will stand firm on its decision to retain Milton D. Proctor as superintendent of schools, despite students strikes and indignation meetings of parents. This was apparent today after a hectic session of the board with nearly a thousand citizens who stormed the board meeting place and forced an adjournment to a nearby church to accommodate the crowds.

The six members of the board, who went into conference after a free-for-all fight between students in the corridor of a high school here, heard protests against retaining Proctor, who was chosen while an assistant superintendent at White Plains, N. J., and given a long term contract at $6,000 a year.

Dr. J. H. Alleman, Proctor's predecessor, now serves as the latter's assistant.

Students paraded the streets here yesterday as a protest against Proctor's administration, and hundreds of parents gathered at the board meeting last night in an effort to bring about Proctor's discharge, but the board stood adamant.

Feeling against Proctor was brought to a head by the discharge of two veteran teachers, "for purposes of economy."

RICHARDS' BILL BEFORE HOUSE

Inheritance Tax Exemption Measure Reported Out Of Committee

(From News Bureau, State Capital)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 30.—After lying in committee for examination for weeks, house bill 400, designed to allow exemptions on estate in the payment of direct inheritance tax, has been reported out with a $1,000 exemption clause. The bill was presented by Representative Bart Richards of Lawrence county.

In its original draft the bill provided that no direct inheritance tax should be paid on estates under $10,000 and this amount should apply on all estates. It was first committed to the committee on judiciary general and from there to the ways and means committee.

Chairman Philip Sterling of the ways and means committee had the auditor general's department compile a set of figures showing what revenue would be cut off if the bill passed and was informed that for every thousand dollars of exemption there would be a cut of about $900,000 revenue.

After some weeks of debate in the committee it was finally decided that if the sponsor of the bill would agree to the $1,000 clause instead of the $10,000 as originally drawn that the bill would be reported favorably.

Because the passage of the bill would establish the principle of reducing inheritance tax in Pennsylvania, Richards agreed to it and the bill was on the house calendar for first reading on Wednesday. If passed and signed it will give $1,000 exemption on all estates in the payment of direct inheritance tax and will be a start in the direction of eventually putting the exemption at a point where widows of men in very ordinary circumstances would not be compelled to pay to the state a part of their little inheritance.

The bill of Senator Weingartner, which makes county commissioners in fifth class counties, directors of the poor passed finally in the house, it having passed the senate. This remedies a condition set up by a recent decision of the attorney general's department.

DULL TEETH

Clear Up, Shine Like Jewels

Get Pepsodent—Works wonders by clearing film coat from teeth

TEETH seldom are naturally "off color." Most often they're merely coated with a film that forms on teeth and absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. By clearing it off, one's whole appearance may be changed.

Old-type dentifrices failed to remove that film successfully. That's why brushing has failed you. Now leading dentists urge the special film-removing dentifrice, Pepsodent, for this purpose.

Results are quick and surprising. Film coats go. Teeth whiten; sparkle like jewels. Bacteria that thrive in film are combated; tooth decay, gum troubles and pyorrhea thus scientifically fought.

To prove those results, accept 10-day tube free. Or get full-size tube for few cents at your druggist. Do this in fairness to yourself.

School Children Are Immunized

Second Treatment Being Given Mercer Children; Other County News

MERCER Pa. March 30—The second treatment of the school children of the Mercer public schools takes place today by Dr. S. J. Dickey county medical director assisted by Mercer physicians.

The treatment is the immunizing dose prescribed by the state medical board for children between the ages of six months and 18 years to protect them from diphtheria.

The treatment is administered in three doses consisting of a serum injected into the arm. The schools at Mercer, Fredonia, Sandy Lake and Stoneboro are affected by this wholesale treatment of the state which is free to all who desire it.

The treatments at Sandy Lake and Stoneboro are carded for Wednesday while those at Fredonia take place on Monday.

There are now listed for hearing in the prothonotary's office here the applications of 200 aliens in this county who desire to be named citizens of the United States.

The next naturalization court is carded for May 3 when it is expected that a four day session will have to be held starting on this date to dispose of the lengthy list now awaiting hearing.

That the farmers of Mercer county and others are overlooking a bet in agricultural development that would prove of financial benefit is the opinion of the Mercer county farm bureau who are organizing now where it is possible clubs of boys and girls for the growing of strawberries and raspberries. The soil of the county has been found by agronomists to be adapted for their growing.

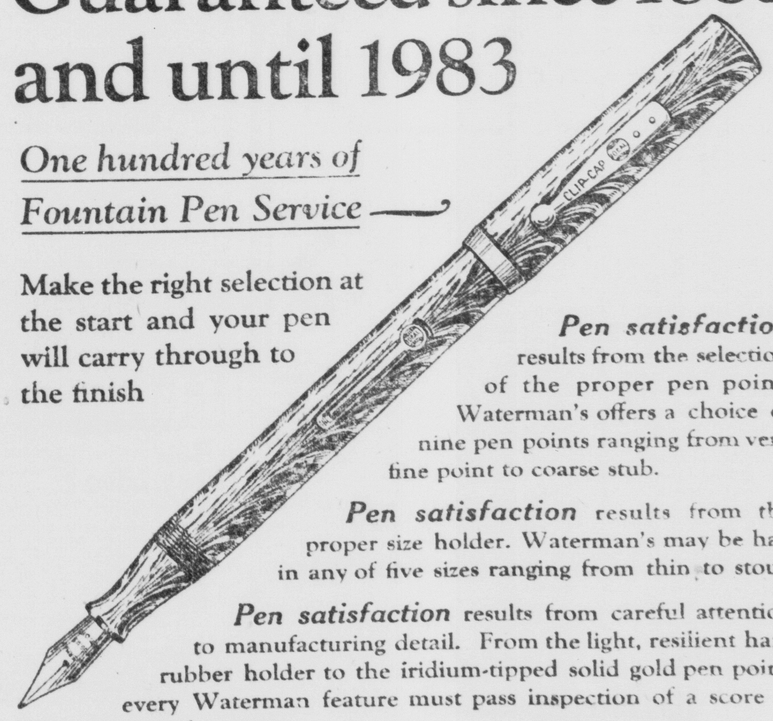

The Stoneboro community is one of the most productive of strawberries in the state. Not only the increased growth of the berries but the better care of the patches now bearing is the plea of thebureau.

One reason why there is less bigamy is because so many are satisfied just to be sweeties.

Let Contract For Addition To Local Bank

Union Trust Company To Enlarge Safety Deposit Box Facilities

NEW VAULT ALSO WILL BE ADDED

Contract for the construction of an addition to the Union Trust Company building, which will cost many thousands of dollars and will provide the patrons of that banking institution with the most modern banking equipment and the last word in burglar-proof construction, it was stated by T. F. Morehead, member of the building committee, today. The contract was awarded to the Boldt Construction Company of Cleveland, O., and actual work in preparation for the building of the addition has been started.

The addition will be one story in height and at the rear of the present banking house on North Mercer street, on a vacant space that has been used for parking purposes. It will be 31 by 40 feet in size and a brick and fireproof construction. The addition will house the enlarged bond department and safety deposit box vault of the Union Trust Company. Present directors' room of the banking house at the rear of the present banking room and between the latter and the new addition, will be included in the new departments.

The addition will be finished in marble and with a grill in keeping with the finish of the present banking room of the institution.

In the new addition will be located the new safe deposit vault for the convenience of the patrons of the institution. It will be 16 feet four inches by 24 feet four inches in size. It will be of the latest type of construction and absolutely burglar-proof.

It will contain 2,862 safe deposit boxes of various sizes and in keeping with the needs of the various patrons. The locks of the safe deposit boxes will each have 21 tumblers and cannot be picked. They require the use of the master key and key of the renter of the box to open them.

The vault is being constructed according to the latest methods and in keeping with the methods and plans used in Federal Reserve banks. The walls will be 26 inches thick and constructed of brick, reinforced concrete and a steel plate that is impervious to acetylene or electric torches.

The floors are to be 16 inches in thickness and will be constructed by the Mosler Safe Company of Canton, O. There will be two such doors, one the main entrance and one on the side for emergency purposes and also for the convenience of the patrons of the bank. They are burglar-proof.

The main entrance door will be circular and 84 inches in diameter. The side entrance will be of the same general construction, but not so large. It will be possible for the patron to enter the vault at the main entrance with the person in charge, secure their box and then go out the side entrance to the eight coupon booths and two coupon rooms provided in the new addition, and which increases the facilities for the care of safe deposit box patrons several times. The patron will return through the vault to the main exit and under the surveillance of the person in charge in leaving.

A vault could have been constructed at less expense, but the Union Trust Company is protecting the interests of its patrons in the latest and best manner by securing the best obtainable.

SCHOOL NEWS OF PLAIN GROVE

At the present time the high school students of Plaingrove await with keen anticipation the announcement of the senior play. In this event the students as well as the patrons are sure of a real treat. Several high grade royalty plays are under consideration. Doubtless a comedy will be selected. Any production at the hands of such an experienced group of players as the seniors is certain to take an audience by storm. (And if by chance you considered the last play a "storm", then we promise you this one will be a "whirlwind".)

Clean-up week and spring are invariably simultaneous occurrences. With four acres of playground, the Plaingrove school has nothing short of an onerous task. However, at the mercy of the "Scrap-paper Brigade", all unnecessary rubbish just naturally vanishes like whipped cream does on the end of your tongue. The above nomenclature has been assumed by the group of seventh grade boys, who under the leadership of Mr. Walter, have on sundry occasions proven themselves deft dispersers of anything which would have a cluttering influence on the bonny greensward. The personnel of the "brigade" is as follows: William McCune, Kenneth Prior, Tony Lucas, Melvin Grandy, James Rongrans, Reed Thompson, Harry Bowers, Clarence Houston, Alek Rzicznek, William McKee, Carl Yonkins, Mont Minor, Harold Rodgers and Boyd Foster. These boys and all the other pupils are to be complimented on their effort to keep the grounds immaculate.

Recently the high school literary club presented a novelty program consisting entirely of music. Commendable talent was displayed in every case and it is to be hoped that the students continue their musical efforts. The program:

Song—By the club.
Piano solo—Maxine Ray.
Vocal solo—Helen Patterson.
"Piano Spice"—Prof. Hill.
Recitative selection — Agnes Brenneman.
Piano solo—Louise Miles.
Banjo-mandolin soli—Prof. Walter.
Piano solo—Elizabeth McNulty.
Violin solo—Beulah Graham.
Piano selection—Edna Sankey.
Musical reading—Margaret Montgomery.
Piano solo—Margaret McCune.

BOYS TEAMS TO LAUNCH DRIVE

To Seek Members For New Castle Y. M. C. A. Boys Department

Initial meeting of the boys department of the Y. M. C. A. for the membership drive was held last night in the Y. M. C. A. with a supper for the boys.

Following the supper, the organization was explained to the boys present. R. L. Meermans, J. R. Dunfee and J. C. Leonard spoke briefly on the purpose of the drive.

There were about 40 boys present and two teams were drawn up for the membership drive. Each team was given the names of certain boys as prospects for membership.

A great amount of rivalry was shown between the two teams and shows that each team is out for the other's scalp. Each team has chosen for its motto, "Lick the Pants Off the Other Team," says J. C. Leonard, director of boys department.

Peking Peaceful In Contrast To Southern China

Southern Agitators Fail To Make Inroads Into Northern Province

MARSHAL TSO-LIN IN COMPLETE CONTROL

Houghton Denies Americans Leaving China Due To Many Fears

BY JOHN GOETTE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEKING, March 30.—In contrast with the flame of terrorism which is racing over South China, Peking today is calm and peaceful.

Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, commander in chief of the Northern army, by his iron measures, has completely suppressed activities of southern agitators, although the official organ of the government charges that the Russian soviet embassy is a hotbed of propagandists, who are attempting to incite students and labor leaders.

On the surface there is no anti-foreign feeling here. The only anger that may arise, it is believed, would come from artifically incited mobs. It is reported that members of the "Dare and Die Corps" of the Southern army have made their way into Peking and they doubtless would become ringleaders if rioting could be fomented.

American residents of this city are not frightened by the threat of a northern invasion by the Cantonese, although a few Americans are sending away their women and children.

Observers here, knowing nothing of the military plans of Gen. Chang Kai-Shek, the Cantonese commander, refused to speculate upon the possibility of a drive northward. Nor would they attempt to estimate the speed at which the Cantonese could advance. In the south the Cantonese had practically no opposition when they marched on Shanghai.

Marshal Chang Tso-Lin has about 403,000 troops in Manchuria, the Peking area, Shantung province and Honan province against about 208,700 Cantonese regulars.

Evacuation Complete.

The arrival of the Cantonese at the gates of Peking would be affected by possible desertions of northerners due to propaganda as well as the present frantic appeals of Marshal Chang to enlist foreign aid for his campaign against the Cantonese.

R. Henry Houghton, director of the Rockefeller hospital, employing the largest group of Americans in Peking, denied that the departure of some of the Americans is due to fear. Americans who normally receive leaves of absence at this time of year, are departing while others are arranging to go to Japan to spend their summer vacation. It is admitted that the plans of some of the Americans may have been influenced by the uncertainty caused by the victories of the Cantonese army and the mob outbreaks that have followed in the wake of the Southern troops.

The United States legation has been advised that all Americans have been evacuated from Nanking except one family that refused to leave.

The United States destroyer, Preston, which was at Nanking during the wild anti-foreign rioting, has arrived at Chefoo to take on board American citizens.

WATCH FOR BANK ROBBER

TWO ROBBERIES ARE REPORTED

Store Is Entered—Theft Reported From Fountain Inn

Two robberies were reported to the police this morning. One occured, according to the statements made to Detective C. C. Horner, between 1:30 a. m. and 7 a. m. this morning at the store of Doher & Habib, 8 East Washington street. A bag of money containing $160 was taken, it was claimed. Entrance was apparently effected by unlocking a rear door of the store before it was closed and then coming in. Officers Lockard and Walls answered the call when it was first received.

The Fountain Inn reported that a coin box containing between $4 and $5 had been stolen from a toilet door of that place.

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, March 30.—Edgar Wilkins, American citizen of Savannah, Ga., has been killed by Jalisco outlaws who kidnaped him, according to an unconfirmed report from Guadalajara, published by the newspaper Excelsior today.

Wilkins and his son were kidnaped several days ago and the son was released and sent to Mrs. Wilkins with a demand for $40,000 ransom, asserting that unless the ransom was paid Wilkins would be killed. This threat has been carried out, according to the Guadalajara reports.

Urgent protests have been made by the American embassy and the United States consulate at Guadalajara.

Committee Refuses To Report Grimes Measure To Senate

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 30.—The bi-ennial attempt to establish a state board of chiropractic examiners failed finally today when the Senate committee on public health and sanitation voted against reporting out the Grimes house bill which would establish such a board. The bill had passed the House.

The main objections to the measure were centered on the section which would have licensed present practitioners without examinations. A public hearing was held on the bill late yesterday.

Social Evening At Eagles Club

Philadelphia Man Makes Address Representing Grand Aerie

MUSICAL NUMBERS ALSO PRESENTED

Members of New Castle Aerie No. 455, Fraternal Order of Eagles and their friends, numbering several hundred, gathered last night at the Eagles Home on South Jefferson street, and enjoyed an evening of music, good speaking and boxing bouts. It was one of the most successful get-together social evenings in the history of the local aerie.

Grand Aerie Speaker.

Outstanding feature of the evening was the address of Attorney George F. Douglas of Philadelphia, representative of the Grand Aerie, who told of what the order has accomplished and what it is planning for the future.

He said among other things: No great corporation run for private profit is trying harder than the Fraternal Order of Eagles to give its members 100 per cent service. Its financial affairs are under the supervision of expert auditors and the member knows that he will receive what is due him. The Eagles have paid out $45,000,000 to members since its organization twenty-nine years ago. It provides pleasant surroundings to gratify the social nature of its members. The order had buildings costing millions of dollars all over the country.

"Years ago, the order espoused the cause of workmen's compensation. Now as a result of this support, there are such laws on the statute books of every state where the order is strong. We took up the Mothers Pension when it seemed but the ideal of a visionary. Now it is a law in this and nearly every other state. The Fraternal Order of Eagles was the first advocate of the national observance of Mother's Day. Public recognition came on May 10, 1925, when the American War Mothers appointed a veteran member of this order to deliver an address at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington Cemetery, Washington. The Fraternal Order of Eagles provided for the dependents of its soldiers and sailors in the World War and is still doing it. Today we seek to lift the fear of hunger and winter's cold and all the bitter ignominy of poverty in old age. Old Age Pension laws have been passed in many states through our efforts. Such a law is an issue in this state. The public is behind the movement and it will win."

Dorcy Presides

P. T. Dorcy, worthy president of the New Castle Aerie, presided at the meeting. He introduced Attorney George W. Muse, who acted as master of ceremonies in a manner that received the approval of those present.

The earlier part of the evening was devoted to musical numbers by the Castleton Four, composed of Messrs. George Anthony, Harry Evans, William D. Williams, Jr., and Arthur Thomas, and with Edwin Lewis as accompanist. These singers and accompanist acquitted themselves in a finished manner that proved the organization to be one of unusual merit. Every number was received with generous applause and encores had to be given.

The program included the following: "A Little Close Harmony," by the quartet with "Little Cotton Dolly," as an encore number; "Just a Cottage Small," by George Anthony; "Mother Machree," by William D. Williams, Jr.; Duet, "Tenor and Baritone," by Messrs. George Anthony and Harry Evans; "Lassie Of Mine," Arthur Thomas; "Coming Through the Rye," by quartet with "The Song of the Jolly Roger" as an encore number; "The Bugler" by Harry Evans.

A letter was read from Assemblyman Bart E. Richards expressing his regret at not being able to be present and explaining that his duties as assemblyman kept him in Harrisburg. This was presented by Albert Longacre, secretary of the Aerie.

The program was brought to a close with three boxing matches in which several men from the Dime stable participated. The first was a three round bout between Harry and Roy Miller, midgets. The second was a four round go between Joe Midway and Frankie Ritz and the final number, a four round affair between Johnny and Henry Slate. These numbers were fast and interesting exhibitions of the manly art.

FARM FACTS

TIMELY REMINDERS From The Pennsylvania State College

Timely Reminders From the Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture.

Grow Legume Hays—Clover, alfalfa and all other legume hay crops help cheapen the cost of dairy cows and of producing milk. Where soils are suited to their growing one or more legumes always should be included in the crop rotations of dairy farms.

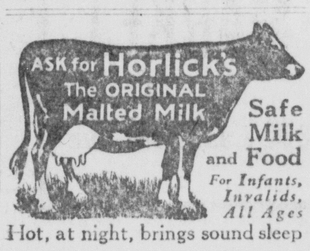

Dock the Young Lambs—Long tailed lambs brand the sheepman as careless in his methods of handling his flocks. Our good shepherds dock the young generation of wool and mutton producers early in life so they wil not have to carry around a useless and unnecessary piece of anatomy. They also castrate the ram lambs in the mutton flock.

Feed Cattle Regularly — Roll call at the stockyards will soon sound for many steers now on feed. As other farming operations begin to press for time do not fail to be regular and thorough in feeding and caring for the fattening cattle. Comfortable quarters and ample beding during the rainy season will mean many dollars in the stockman's pocketbook.

Prune Hardy Vines—Go over the hardy vines now. All except the wistaria can be pruned at this time. Do not allow the vines to become too thick. Also be sure that they are properly fastened to supports.

Use the Sunshine—Milk utensils will be much sweeter and cleaner if they are placed in the sunlight after being washed.

Plant Quality Vegetables—Only varieties of quality and the best strains of these varieties should be planted in the home garden.

Hot, at night, brings sound sleep

May Manufacture More Whiskey Soon

Distillers In Conference At Washington On Matter Of Renewing Supply

Several Distilleries Will Likely Be Placed In Temporary Operation

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of the News.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Representatives of a number of whiskey distillers, owners and concentration warehousemen in western Pennsylvania are in Washington attending a series of conferences with Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement and other prohibition officials, from which it is hoped to arrive at a voluntary arrangement for resumption of whiskey manufacture to replenish waning stocks.

Between the hours of the conferences the various groups are negotiating among themselves in an effort to frame a program that will be acceptable to the treasury department.

"I told those attending the conference that because of the failure of congress to put through the medicinal whiskey bill which we asked for, some voluntary plan must be worked out whereby an early renewal of manufacture can be accomplished," said General Andrews. "We want to limit the number of distilleries which will come into operation and we wish to hold down to the lowest limit the number of persons who will handle the liquor. The conference so far has shown a good spirit of cooperation.

"It was made plain to those attending the conference that every phase of the program eventually worked out must be just and fair. It must be beyond criticism because after we have worked it out it must get the approval of the department of justice and the federal trade commission."

There are now in storage about 10,000,000 gallons of whiskey. General Andrews estimates that quantity will last the country about four years at the present rate of consumption. He has previously said that whiskey to be fit for medical purposes, must be at least four years old. He, therefore, regards it as imperative that distilling be resumed as early as practicable.

Among the western Pennsylvania concerns represented at the conference are:

A. Overholt & Co., Inc., Broad Ford; Joseph S. Finch & Co., Schenley; The Large Distilling company, West Elizabeth, and the Hamburger Distillery company, South Brownsville.

DRILL WAS SHORT THAT DAY

"Com-pa-nee atten-shun," bawled the drill sergeant to the awkward squad. "Com-pa-nee, lift up your left leg and hold it straight out in front of you."

By mistake one member held up his right leg which brought it out side by side with his neighbor's left leg.

"And who is the bloomin' galoot over there holding up both legs," shoulted the hard-boiled sergeant, disgustedly.

Don't stand on your dignity; there's nothing in the world so slippery.

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS EXPECT RECEIPTS TO EXCEED RECORD

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Customs receipts for the current fiscal year are expected by the treasury to eclipse previous records with an estimated collection of approximately $600,000,000.

The greatest previous collection for the year ended June 30 1926 was $579,716,610.

An increase of more than $18,000,000 since the beginning of this fiscal year as compared with the same period last year was reported with collections on March 15 being $444,987,000 although collections during January and February were less than during the same months in 1926.

COMPLETING OF BURBANK TESTS IS ABANDONED

SANTA ROSA, Cal., March 30.—Convinced of the futility of depending on others to preserve the complicated experiments of the late Luther Burbank, plant wizard, Mrs. Burbank, his widow, has abandoned al plans for bringing the uncompleted plant experiments to maturity, she announced today.

The completed plant and fruit experiments—definite fixed new varieties of fruits and flowers—unknown outside the Gold Ridge experiment farm, and said to be unlike anything ever seen previously, would be carried on by Mrs. Burbank and Paul Stark of the Stark nurseries of Louisiana.

State Board Grants Pardon To Five In Delayed Actions

Man Who Claims He Deliberately Planned Robbery Is Given Freedom

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 30.—Five cases held under advisement since the meeting two weeks ago have been recommended for pardon, the state board of pardons announced today. No action will be taken on the other cases pending prior to the April meeting.

Pardons recommended were Stewart Mathias, William Strauss, Samuel Strauss, Northampton county, conspiracy with intent to defraud insurance companies; John Devlin, Philadelphia, conspiracy and larceny, and Michael Landis, Washington county, robbery armed with offensive weapon.

Devlin's plea for a pardon was based on his claim that he had staged a fake robbery to attract the attention of his employers and gain promotion. He was employed by the Auxiliary Alarm company of Philadelphia and claimed that the "robbery" of a fur store which used the alarm system was planned to attract attention to himself. He was sentenced in May, 1923, to five to ten years.

POLICE HEAR OF FOUR ACCIDENTS

Minor Mishaps Are Reported To Police Station By Autoists

Four slight accidents were reported to the police last night and this morning. Jesse Neighbors of 27 Apple Way reported that he was going west on West Washington street at the end of the street car line, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 849-973, which was parked in the middle of the street backed into and damaged his machine when the driver released the brakes.

David Olansky of 7 East Reynolds street was driving the truck of Joseph Rosen of Reynolds street south on Croton avenue at Armstrong alley, when while trying to make a turn into the alley he drove his machine to the left side of the street and into a tree in trying to avoid the car of P. S. Grim, going south on the street, and a car parked at one side of the street. J. Rosen, owner of the truck, was injured on the head and leg in the accident and required the services of a physician.

M. Conti of 915 South Mill street reported he was driving south on Mill street and signaled his intention of driving into 919 South Mill street when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 934-730, also going south, ran into and damaged his machine.

William Bowen of 20 North Greenwood avenue reported that he was driving north on the safety zone on Mill street, and in avoiding a car parked close to the north end of the safety zone, he struck and knocked down the safety zone standard.

Back Seats Given Husbands In Homes Judge Tells World

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 30.—Husbands take back seats in modern homes, Federal Judge John R. Hazel ruled, in effect, here today.

Confirming conviction of Mary Swierbienski for selling liquor, he upheld contention of Roy P. Ohlin, assistant United States attorney, that "the husband may have ruled the household in England, in the distant past, but today he has assumed a position of relative obscurity there."

Her counsel had argued she should not have been convicted because her husband, Benny, had been acquitted of a like charge and under the old English common law, a wife could not be convicted and sentenced for a misdemeanor unless her husband, arrested with her for the same offense, was treated similarly.

Barnes To Direct Community Chorus

Lee Hess Barnes of Meadville, Pa., director of the music festival held each summer at the Temple of Music, Conneaut Lake Park, Pa. and former director and head of the voice department of the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music has been secured as director of the new community chorus now being organized here and which it is planned to make one of the outstanding musical organizations of this part of the country.

Prof. Barnes will on Thursday evening for the first time be present at a meeting of the chorus and direct it. It is planned that he shall visit this city each week to direct the efforts of the chorus.

One of his outstanding pupils is Miss Lyda Peterson now known as Lyda Neebson and being coached by Madame Marcella Sembrich for an operatic career.

He is at the present time directing choruses in Franklin, Oil City, Sharon and Mercer.

The local chorus is to have a membership of from 200 to 500, according to the number that can be interested in such an organization and any one interested is invited to be at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock and join in the movement.

The chorus is being sponsored by the Music club.

Some Difficulties Seen In Paper Mill Bridge Traffic Route Plan

Suggestion made in council yesterday for improving Cascade street and the paper mill hill as a new means of routing traffic from the eastern end of the city downtown, sounds alright, if it were not for the last proviso mentioned in connection with the plan.

The latter suggestion is that the Neshannock creek be crossed at the paper mill bridge, but that it would be necessary to erect a new bridge to carry any large amount of traffic. It is also well know that there is a grade crossing at the end of the bridge. The further suggestion is then made that the bridge be in the form of a viaduct to eliminate this grade crossing. All of which goes back to the starting place of all the talk for a connecting link between the east side and the north hill, a viaduct. For years the matter of a viaduct has been discussed, connecting Croton and the North hill. The matter has progressed so far that plans for the structure have been considered, and there has been talk of attempting the improvement.

It would appear to the writer that if it is necessary to erect a new bridge at the paper mill, and that bridge take the form of a viaduct, it is misdirected move to take the viaduct that far upstream. Little of the expense of a proper viaduct would be saved, and the situation at best would not be satisfactory. "The Narrows," along the Neshannock avenue side of the creek are not such as to permit heavy traffic, without great expense of widening.

The Cascade street and paper mill hill project, insofar as it would be considered a means of aiding traffic from the east side to the North Hill, would not be a feasible one.

Grading of Cascade street from East Washington street at Cascade Park to the Croton school house would however, be an improvement that would be of service to the city, many believe.

METHODIST WOMEN TO THROW OFF MALE YOKE AT CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, Pa., Mar. 30. — Methodist women of California, this county, have thrown off the male yoke and are determined to secure equal church suffrage. Today they presented a petition in court asking that the charter of Kiers' chapel be amended to permit them to take the same share in ecclesiastical affairs as the male worshipers.

The charter provides that only males over 21 years of age may participate in any church election and for a half century the women have been mere onlookers. It is understood that the men will not oppose the petition.

BURN MORTGAGE ON CHURCH HOME

Annual Meeting Of Christian And Missionary Alliance Last Night

The annual meeting of the Gospel Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance took place Tuesday night at the tabernacle. Reports were given by all the societies of the church and all seem to be in a prosperous condition. The Sunday school reported over six hundred dollars raised during the year, while the treasurer's report showed over four thousand dollars, apart from the offerings given for pastor's support.

The trustees reported the building completely out of debt. The mortgage was burned during the service by two of the original trustees of 25 years ago, Ezra Ashmore and John Wink. Singing of gospel choruses and prayers of thanksgiving were offered unto God for this event.

The election of officers resulted in the following persons being elected: for trustee for three years, W. C. H. Matthews, John Lewis Sr., John Wink; for elders, John Lewis Sr., W. P. Dufford, James Cann, D. A. Pitzer; for deacons, E. D. Pinney, Frank Fogarty, William Shira, E. Hagerty; for secretary of board, E. D. Pinney; for financial secretary, Thomas Cuthwaite; for treasurer, William M. Shira; for chorister, E. D. Pinney; for pianist, Miss Mae Cooper; for assistant pianist, Miss Pearl Gibbons.

LONG DELAY ENDS FOR "STALLED" PAIR ANXIOUS FOR HOME

LATROBE, Pa., Mar. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris, of Lafayette, Ind., will leave here April 1 for their home after being delayed here for a year. The couple met with an accident near St. Xavier's a year ago. Their machine was wrecked, they were without funds and were given quarters by the proprietors of Shaffer's garage and fixed up living quarters there.

Harris was given work to earn enough money to take him home. Recently he purchased another machine with his savings, and he and his wife expect to leave in this car. About two weeks ago Harris made a start in an automobile and met with an accident before he reached Greensburg.

Science Classes See Pump Station

Ben Franklin High Students Make Visit To Water Company Station

Four general science classes of the Franklin Junior High school enjoyed a trip to the pump station of the New Castle Water company, one company going Monday afternoon and the other Tuesday morning. The girls class in Home economics also accompanied the one group.

The students in general science are studying water, its purification and distribution, so that the teacher of general science, M. H. Ruggles planned this trip, while Miss Thelma Howell, teacher, of home economics took her class of girls.

Much interest was shown by the students and lessons in just how water we drink in the city is treated were learned that would never have been learned from books alone.

Calvin Coolidge As 1928 Candidate Seems Certainty

President Silent, But Friends And Observers Do Plenty Of Talking

BOOM FOR LOWDEN CONTINUES STRONG

Haynes Appointment Surprises Capital Guessers; Grain Belt Behind Lowden

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Congressional politicians lingering on here in the capital in hopes of ascertaining something of President Coolidge's political intentions toward 1928 are slowly coming to the conclusion—some reluctantly, some otherwise—that he intends to be a candidate.

They base it not upon anything Mr. Coolidge himself has said, for he has said nothing, but rather upon what his friends say and upon his own actions—straws which may show the direction of the political wind.

Favors Haynes

The latest of these, to the politically minded, is the appointment of Roy A. Haynes, the Anti-Saloon League's pet candidate, as prohibition commissioner. Haynes' appointment is credited to Mr. Coolidge personally, for it is widely known in Washington that neither Secretary Mellon nor General Lincoln C. Andrews wanted the Ohio prohibitionist named. They had another candidate, J. D. Pennington, an ex-naval officer, who has never been in politics.

President Coolidge has seldom disappointed his secretary of the treasury in the matter of appointments. Yet in this instance he listened to Senator Frank B. Willis, the Anti-Saloon League's spokesman in the Senate; to Wayne B. Wheeler, the league's generalissimo in the capital, and elected to accept their advice rather than that of Mellon and Andrews, the officials directly responsible for prohibition enforcement.

After Dry Support

To the politicians this betokens a willingness on the part of Mr. Coolidge to accept the dry support for 1928. Rightly or wrongly, the politicians are significantly linking it up with Senator William E. Borah's bold bid for this same support, and with the apparent headway which Governor Al Smith is making toward the Democratic nomination next year.

The Haynes appointment, coming on top of the political swing-around-the-circle recently concluded by Charles D. Hilles, Republican national committeeman from New York, has done more to convince the political railbirds of the capital that Mr. Coolidge intends being a candidate than any other single event since Congress closed.

There are some who still cling to the belief that Mr. Coolidge will not be a candidate, but their numbers are diminishing. Those who hold this belief, and they include some of the shrewdest politicians around Capitol Hill, believe that Mr. Coolidge is only going to "pretend" to be a candidate right up to the last, simply to prevent anyone else organizing a real national campaign for delegates, but at the last moment he will find it inexpedient to stand because of the opposition within his party to the third term bugaboo.

An interesting story is being told around Washington concerning the Hilles trip. It was undertaken, according to authentic sources, at Mr. Coolidge's direct request, and after a story had reached Mr. Coolidge's ears that a "combination" had been effected between the friends of ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and the friends of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt of New York, aiming at a Lowden-Roosevelt ticket for '28.

Lowden-Roosevelt

Lowden's friends already have a certain formidable block of grain-belt delegates in sight, according to the story, and what they needed was some eastern balance. Colonel Roosevelt was selected to comprise that balance because of various considerations — the value of the Roosevelt name; his wide acquaintance in New York and eastern states, and probably equally as important, because he had the time and means to devote to organization work. Roosevelt has been making many speeches of late—some of them somewhat critical of the administration.

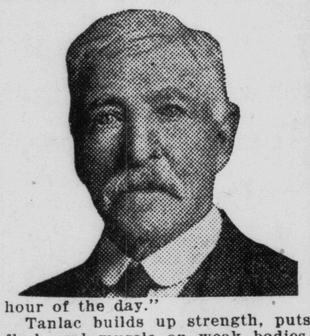

When this story reached Mr. Coolidge's ears, according to the story, he called Hilles to Washington and asked him to undertake the western trip, one object being, of course, to assure western doubters that New York was still behind Coolidge, despite Colonel Roosevelt's activities.

Hilles swung around the circle as scheduled. Upon his return he reported to Mr. Coolidge that there undeniably had been a considerable amount of defection from the Coolidge standard in the grain belt because of the McNary-Haugen veto. He also reported Lowden lieutenants working industriously.

What Mr. Coolidge said, if anything, has not been divulged.

They Stain Teeth

Why Some Teeth Look Dingy

A viscous coat constantly forms on your teeth. You can feel it any time. Fruits, coffee and tobacco stain that coat, then teeth look dingy. The glistening enamel is hidden by a cloud.

Magnesia quickly removes that coat. When it is gone, the teeth reveal their natural beauty. The quick change will delight you.

Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth paste applies that help in the best way known. It applies Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in concentrated form and dentists have for 50 years recommended that.

It protects teeth in many ways. Magnesia is alkaline, so it instantly neutralizes the acids which form between the teeth and in crevices. Acids are the greatest enemies of the teeth and gums. Its antiseptics combat mouth germs. Its deodorants purify the breath. No other tooth paste in existence does so many things at once.

Learn how much it does. Watch the teeth whiten, the breath grow sweet. Note the delightful taste it brings to the mouth in the morning. You will always be glad that you know it. You will never find anything else to compare with it. Go try it now.

Five in One
Its 15 ingredients combine in one tooth paste these five important helps:
Antacids — Cleansers
Antiseptics — Polishers
Breath Deodorants

Commission Bill Troubles Senate

Commission Measure Is Answer Of W. L. Mellon For Reform Demands

GASOLINE TAX BILL ON SIDING

Senator Woodward Will Make Set Speech Against Passage Of Bonebrake Bill

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 30.—Buried among a hundred appropriation bills on the Senate calendar today is the Bonbrake resolution providing for the creation of an election law commission. The commission is the original answer of W. L. Mellon for election reform demands in Pennsylvania.

Senator George Woodward, the lone independent of the Philadelphia delegation, will make a set speech against the bill. The Democrats, usually inarticulate, will oppose the resolution. None of them has signified an intention of opposing it on the floor.

The resolution is slated for passage. On several measures the Senate failed to read the signals and later had to reconsider after their defeat. There is no misunderstanding regarding the Mellon proposal.

Given Run-Around

When the resolution was introduced it was intended that it should take the place of all election reform measures which had been introduced. Since that time, however, three of the governor's bills have been forced from committee and passed on to the House.

Unless there is a change in the present Senate plans, no more major election reform measures will come from its own committee. The major bills sponsored by Senator Frank J. Harris, Allegheny, are dead. The one bill of Governor Fisher which still remains in committee is listed in the same category.

So long as that situation remains there is little to trouble the Senate except that which may come from the House. If the House passes the mandatory ballot box opening bill in its original form that will spell more trouble for the upper house.

But meanwhile it hopes to get a breathing spell, untroubled by controversial issues. That will permit quick work on the various bills designed to take care of special situations and interests and which must be cleared up during the remaining period.

The gasoline tax bill cannot reach the Senate this week. Until it does the Senate hopes to be permitted to confine its attention to minor matters.

ALL ALUMNI MUST REPLY

All Who Plan To Attend New Wilmington Banquet Must Send Word

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON Pa., Mar. 30—Dr. Hugh Harta member of the committee which is planning the Lawrence county banquet for Westminster alumni announced yesterday that it will be necessary to receive cards from all alumni who plan to attend the banquet on April 8 in order to plan sufficient accommodations. Post cards with answer cards atached have been sent to more than 200 alumni and it is the desire of the committee that these be returned as soon as possible in order that preparations may go ahead for the feeding of such a large group.

Dr. Robert F. Galbraith pastor of the Bellevue Presbyterian church will be the principal speaker at the banquet and Dr. W. Charles Wallace president of the college will also speak. A number of novel entertainment features are being planned by the New Wilmington chapter of the Alumni association, sponsors for the banquet.

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play if Constipated

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup", then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup", which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company".

After the "Flu" is over —you need a Tonic

Help Is Needed To Restore Your Wasted Strength And Energy.

"Flu" leaves the body weakened and run down. In such cases a tonic is clearly indicated. Restore the appetite and rid yourself of that let-down feeling.

"Flu" is a very enervating disease. It leaves its victims so weak and debilitated that there is as much danger from the after-effects as from the diease itself. In other words, after an attack of the "flu" you need a selective tonic to rebuild the system so that you may have your old-time strength and energy restored.

S.S.S. is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality.

You owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

HAS ANCIENT BOOK

Mr. George W. Conway,
Editor, News,
Dear Sir:

I have an old leather bound book, yellow with age, entitled: "The Works of the Reverend and Pious Mr. Andrew Gray, Late Minifter of the Goftel in Glasgow. Printed by Weir & M'Lean and fold at the Shop of A. Weir near the Crofs. M,DCC,IXIX."

Throughout the book Roman numerals are used except on two occasions when the Reverend Mr. Gray preached at Kirklistoun in June 1653, the dates appear in figures.

I am unable to determine the date of publication from the numerals as given. Persons examining the inscription differ as to the date, some claiming that 1699 is correct while others make it 1718 and 1799.

The book was presented to my mother in 1875 by her uncle David Wilson who was for many years an undertaker located at New Bedford, Pa., but who had retired by reason of old age prior to the year of presentation.

The mention of Mr. Wilson in connection with this old book will be interesting to many of your readers.

More Than 22,000,000 Motor Vehicles Registered In 1926

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 30.—More than twenty-two million motor vehicles were registered in the United States during 1926 according to reports received from State registration agencies by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. The year's registration represents an increase of 10.3 per cent or slightly more than 2,000,000 more than that of 1925.

Florida with an increase of 40.2 per cent, not including non-resident registrations, shows a greater gain that any other State. Oklahoma, with a gain of 17.8 per cent, and second only to Florida in respect to the amount of increase, was followed closely by Alabama, Idaho, Louisiana, Mississippi and Utah, all of which had increases over 15 per cent.

Of the total number of vehicles registered, 19,237,171 were passenger automobiles, taxis and busses and 2,764,222 were motor trucks and road tractors. The increase in motor trucks and road tractors amounted to 13.2 per cent, which is somewhat greater than the increase for all classes of motor vehicles, indicating a continuation of the development of commodity transportation by highway.

Receipts from registration fees, licenses, etc., amounted to $288,292,352 as compared with $260,619,621 in 1925. Of the gross receipts $190,406,060 was available for highway construction under the supervision of the State highway departments, $51,702,184 was allocated to counties for expenditure on local roads and $25,274,158 was used to finance highway bond issues. The remainder was used for payment of collection costs and miscellaneous purposes.

Supt. Green Speaks Of School Courses

Says Three R's Still Fundamental In Educational Efforts

Practical education is the aim of the present administration in the New Castle school, according to Dr Clyde C. Green, superintendent of the New Castle schools. But, says Dr. Green, education is not practical if it does not function in the lives of those who are being educated. If it does not function, it is of doubtful value.

When society was less complex than it is at present the so-called fundamentals were represented by the three R's. The three R's still hold first place as the tool subjects, but modern society demands direct instruction in the theory of useful citizenship, preparation for the proper use of leisure time, the development of the aesthetic instinct, an introduction to the fundamentals of science, a knowledge of the laws of health and last, but not least, a system of training designed to develop character. Just as organized society had grown more complex, so the responsibility placed upon the school had increased.

Those responsible for the administration of the public schools must constantly be on their guard against the encroachments of propagandists—well-meaning and otherwise. If all requests for time were granted no place would be left for the teaching of reading, spelling, writing and arithmetic. These fundamentals must receive first attention. People who cannot read and write are classed as illiterates, and certainly the prevention of illiteracy is the first duty of the public schools. To that end the present administrative authorities are bending their energy.

"PAIN WAS DRIVING ME WILD"

Snowbound on remote farm, gets relief from acute neuralgia

Snowbound and alone on a remote farm, miles from a doctor, a plucky Canadian woman endured for hours the racking agony of acute neuralgia.

"The pain in my head was driving me wild," she writes, "when I happened to see a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on the dresser. I gave it a trial and in no time the pain was gone. I slept peacefully the rest of the night."

Sloan's gives quick, genuine comfort to every kind of muscular pain because it doesn't just deaden the nerves. It helps the body to throw off the conditions that are causing the pain.

No need to rub. Pat a little Sloan's on lightly. A healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood begins tingling through the aching place and the pain, swelling, stiffness are quickly relieved. So clean and easy to use, too. All druggists—35 cents.

"Peaches" Is Out, Pittsburgh Man Cancels Contract

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 30.—Deciding that "her appearance would not benefit the club," Charles Lazaro, manager of the Flotilla club, announced today that "Peaches" Heenan Browning's act here has been canceled.

"Peaches" was to have acted as hostess at the club for one night and to have appeared as an entertainer with a Broadway dancing partner, but "after giving the matter serious consideration," Lazaro called off the engagement.

To use hard words indicates irritation; to report them indicates pure meanness.

Janitors Fixing Up Franklin Field

The janitor force of the Benjamin Franklin Junior High School is fixing up the football field so that it will be in good shape for the football season next fall.

The field is being leveled off and reseeded so that a good turf may be grown during the spring rains. It was found the field was in poor shape after the bonfire by which the basketball victory was celebrated the other night. It took several days to gather up the debris and level off the field.

FINDS BURIAL PLOT OF HEROES

Veteran Of Foreign Wars Locates Graves In Mountain Fastness Of State

It was a comrade of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who is responsible for the discovery of the graves of four Revolutionary War heroes in the mountain fastness of Pennsylvania. It is now holding the attention of the United States Government and plans are under way to reinter the bodies of these forgotten dead in the National Soldiers Cemetery in Philadelphia.

The comrade who figured in this discovery in the wooded recesses of Pocono Mountains is James J. Burke of Camden, N. J. Listening to stories of natives of the district that four of General Sullivan's men died some place in the district during the Revolutionary War, and were buried some place there. Exploring, they finally located an old unknown burial plot and it was finally determined that four Revolutionary heroes were buried there.

The government is now engaged in an effort to either have these graves properly marked or exhume the remains and have them placed in the national cemetery in Philadelphia as a result of the efforts of Comrade Burke.

A SLIGHT SETBACK

Johnsonburg Man Severely Wounded By Enraged Father

Daughter Attacked By Man, Father Goes Gunning; Victim May Die

(International News Service)
RIDGWAY, Pa., March 30.—Domenick Feithetti, 25, of Johnsonburg was in the hospital here today in a dying condition from bullet wounds inflicted by John Bonghi, local grocer, according to police.

Feihetti was shot in the back and left arm. Bonghi was held in jail pending the outcome of the other man's wound. The shooting, police say, was the outgrowth of an attack by Feihetti upon Bonghi's daughter Susie, 13, on March 13.

The girl told her mother of the alleged attack, but Mrs. Bonghi did not tell her husband until recently. Bonghi immediately went in search of Feihetti and opened fire when they met, according to police.

This Is For You If You Have Stomach Trouble!

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For some ten or twelve years I suffered from stomach trouble and during that time had tried every means of relief recommended to me or prescribed by my physician, but I grew worse and life was almost unbearable with the constant pain, night and day. My food soured and fermented in my stomach, doing me no good, but rather causing me additional pain. I was urged to have an operation, but refused. At last I heard of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and began to take it. Before I had finished the first bottle the pain in my stomach had gone—it was a wonderful relief—but I was still skeptical about it and expected my old trouble of long standing to return. It is over five years since and I have been free from all stomach trouble and never felt finer or enjoyed my food as I do now."—Frank J. Holzmann, 5300 Holmes St. (Picture above) All druggists.

W. J. Moore Gets Bonus As Safe Driver For Year

Freedom Oil Company Announces Contest For Present Year

In this day of automobiles and traffic congestion it is difficult to avoid traffic accidents on the highways—to do so means that you must not only drive your own car but you must anticipate the actions of the other persons—in fact you must drive the other man's car as well as your own.

Realizing the problem which is before all drivers of motor vehicles, the Freedom Oil Works company, Freedom, Pa., have given another cash bonus of $20 to each of their drivers of motor vehicles who have had no accidents during 1926 due to their own carelessness.

This plan was first adopted by the Freedom company in 1923 when a cash bonus of $10 was paid to 24 drivers of motor vehicles. In 1925 the amount of this bonus was increased to $20 and a considerable number received a bonus for that year. That the plan has been a success is proven by the fact that in 1923 a bonus was paid to 24 drivers, while in in 1926 this number was increased to 89.

In addition to this cash bonus given by the Freedom company, the Ocean Accident & Guarantee corporation, which carries the liability insurance of the Freedom Oil Works company, also award a safe driver's medal to the drivers who have a clear accident record for the year. This safe driver's medal was first given last year and quite a number of drivers are owners of a medal at this time, showing that they have had no accidents since this plan was first inaugurated.

Among the ones receiving bonus is the following local employe:

William J. Moore.

The company has again announced the safe driver's cash bonus for 1927 which has been heartily endorsed by all of its drivers.

Magnesia Best For Your Indigestion

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestents, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

The State senate of Indiana has been sitting as a court hearing the impeachment trial of Circuit Court Judge Clarence W. Dearth of Delaware County. Judge Dearth was brought to trial on a charge of suppressing the Muncie Post-Democrat, edited by George R. Among the witnesses have been newsboys whose papers the judge confiscated. Photos above show the state house at Indianapolis, scene of this unusual trial, with Lieut.-Gov. Harold Van Orman of Evansville, presiding officer, to the left, Judge Dearth, top inset, and Editor George R. Dale, bottom inset.

Eighteen—and No Husband!

Dutch matrons are expressing concern because Princess Juliana will be eighteen on April 13, yet has no husband in sight. The Dutch insist on being governed by an Orange. Queen Wilhelmina was the only survivor of the line for a time. She married a German prince, not to the delight of her subjects, but when Juliana was born, they were happy. And now all Holland will worry until Juliana weds and bears a successor. Two pictures of Juliana and one of Wilhelmina (lower right), are shown above. Juliana is not of the flapper type, and she strongly resembles her mother, both of which facts please the Dutch.

He is seen above demonstrating the machine. The purchasing syndicate is headed by Henry Morgenthau, New York financier and former ambassador to Turkey.

Companies Serving City Of New Castle Realize Expansion

Announcement made yesterday that the Gas Company is planning to build a new $50,000 main line from the East Side to the North Hill section during the coming summer for the enlargement of gas service in this city, is another indication of the expansion and growth of New Castle that has been manifested by public service corporations recently.

New Castle has been gradually expanding until it is a larger city now than most of the residents realize. It is the corporations that are serving the people of all sections of the city that realize the conditions, as is shown by their recent activity.

The Water Company has been compelled during the past year to expend $50,000 in building larger mains to replace some that had been in use and were deemed inadequate to meet the growing demands for service.

Now the Gas Company is obliged to follow suit, and the Telephone Company recently announced that an expenditure of $50,000 would be made here this spring in extending main line service in the city. The telephone company also expended a hundred thousand or more last year in extending the service mains within the city.

New Castle city council is also keenly aware of the growth of the city, due to the frequent complaints that the sanitary sewer system is reaching a point where the mains are not entirely adequate, and arrangements are being made for replacing some of them with larger sewers. A survey is now being made for this purpose.

All of these evidences are a demonstration to citizens of New Castle that the expansion and development of New Castle has probably been going on at a greater rate than they had believed. Because of the large area covered by the city there are few residents of any one section that are entirely cognizant of development taking place everywhere about the city or in its suburbs.

HAVE MEMORIAL FOR TEACHERS

Public School Teachers Commemorate Memory Of Deceased Members

A most beautiful memorial service was held in the Senior High school auditorium yesterday afternoon when over 20 teachers and friends met to commemorate the memory of two teachers who recently passed away.

The teachers for whom the memorial was held are Miss Martha Waite of the Highland school and Miss Elizabeth Treser of the West Side school.

The program was conducted by the New Castle branch of the Pennsylvania State Educational association of which both teachers were members Miss M. E. Vandivort, president of the local branch of the association acted as chairman of the meeting. In preparing the program she was assisted by Miss Alma Locke, Miss Martha Matthews and R. G. Leslie.

Two very fitting solos were given by Miss Ruth Drescher of the Croton school and Miss Helen Alien of the Highland school.

Eulogies were given by Dr. Philip C. Pearson, Miss Waite's pastor, and Rev. Frederick Stough, Miss Treser's pastor. Miss Oliva Griffith spoke in behalf of the teachers.

Dr. Pearson paid a wonderful tribute to Miss Waite. He said that her religion was of a quiet, unemotional type and thus showed a great depth. So, in school, the work she did, laid the foundation in the lives of hundreds of little folks that upper class work could be built upon.

Rev Stough spoke of the faithfulness of Miss Treser in her church service and said that towards the last she, in the church, was the same a she was in school, always at her place when she should have been under the doctor's care.

Miss Griffith spoke so beautifully of the character of these school teachers who were both born in New Castle and products of the New Castle schools.

NORMAN COTTON

There are books and books. There are books that make you happy, there are books that make you sad. But the book that Joe discovered made him quite a different lad. How Joe Pond upset the whole neighborhood with his book knowledge of charm is revealed in the coming Senior play.

Norman Cotton, leading player in a "Lucky Break", "Craig's Wife" and other dramatic successes at Senior high school, interprets the bewildering Joe, and you, too, will certainly succumb to his "charm" if you see the play on April 7 or 8.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

NIGHTTIME ON THE NILE.

Nighttime on the Nile!

Quiet time when all the wild folks of the desert crept out o their lairs to prowl.

Dark time when the river people left the waters in whose coolin depths all day they had lain hidden from the burning sun and came ashore for food.

Dark time when a boy could not see his way before him!

And out in the blackness those great yellow eyes that winked and blinked and mocked them.

It was little wonder that Old Hippo and Petares were half scared to death.

"Eyes so big, 'most big as moons —what monster can own them?" Petares daring not to raise his voice whispered to Old Hippo. "A lion that leaps as he looks, perhaps, or a Tiger that creeps as he crouches! Hippo, oh, Hippo what shall you do if it be a jungle creature?"

"Run!" grunted Hippo. "Run as never ran before!"

"But where? In a long race can't the jungle beasts beat you?"

"Alas yes! But it will not be a long race. Straight for the river shall run and plunge in until its waters have closed over me. The beasts that live on land will not dare to follow me!"

Old Hippo shook with fright but still he held his ground, which was saying a good deal for a Hippo.

You will run into the river where the deep waters will close over you?' asked Petares. "What will become of me? I might as well be clawed to pieces as to be drowned. Once in the river I know not what would become of me. On dry land with the help of good luck I might find a place to hide. Hippo I think I'll take my chances here. Quick! Let me slip down from your back. On my own feet I will seek my own safety. Thank you for the ride old fellow. I am glad to have met you and I will never forget you, but here is where you and I part company. Goodby. Wait. Listen. What was that?"

Next: "Deserter and Deserted."

(International News Service)

DETROIT, March 30.—A murder charge was lodged today against Abe Axler of New York, one of the four men believed to have occupied the apartment from which machine gun fire snuffed out the lives of three men.

While police were developing their case against Axler, they admitted that Meyer "Fish" Blumfield, whose kidnaping resulted in the three machine gun murders, was safe. He is hiding out, however, apparently afraid to disclose the identity of his kidnapers to police fearing another and more serious "ride".

MANY HAVE CATARRH OF THE STOMACH AND DON'T REALIZE ITS DANGERS

Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion; World's Tonic, the Systemic Treatment, Combats Catarrh in Every Part of the System.

Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongues, bad breath, sour burning stomach, rumbling in stomach, gas, and stomach acidity, and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due wholly to Catarrh of the Stomach. Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because it alters the character of the mucous membrane lining the stomach, thickening it and coating it with phlegm, so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermenting, unassimilated food. The products of this fermentation pollute the blood and carries the infection thruout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form. Frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

Catarrh must, therefore, be combated within the system in order to eliminate it. Local treatment in the nose and throat may often bring quick relief from distress, but it is only temporary.

World's Tonic is so highly praised by Catarrh sufferers because it is a systemic treatment for Catarrh, and not only brings quick relief from the disease, but combats catarrh within the system and is designed to rid the body entirely of the disease. World's Tonic relieves the dripping into the throat and discharge from the nose. It also quickly stops dryness, huskiness, soreness of nasal passages, pains in the head, headache and the like. At the same time, World's Tonic clears up the congestion within the system, conquers the Catarrh and brings astonishing results in many cases.

Get World's Tonic at McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Paisley's, Smith's and all other reliable druggists. (229)

APPOINT COUNTY LEAGUE SCHEDULE MAKERS

Independents And Croton Admitted

Lawrence County League Names Robertson, Potter And Richards To Draft Schedule; Games On Week Days Iu Last Half Of Season To Go Five Innings; Unions And Brent Missing From Circuit This Season

By ED. FRITZ

The Good Ship, Lawrence County Baseball League, was put in shape for its 1927 cruise at a meeting last night at the Sporting Goods Store, and the loop will function with eight teams this season.

On account of two teams, Brent and the Unions, being unable to make the riffle last season, their franchises were presented to the Croton A. C. and Independent A. A.

Croton played 25 games last season in the twilight circuit, won 20 and lost five. The Independents, organized recently, will play at Scotland Lane and represent the West Side section.

A committee consisting of Dan Potter, P. R. R. or Mahoningtown representative; T. C. Richards, Independents, and Bob Robertson of Wampum was appointed to draft a two-part schedule.

The committee will function soon and draft a two-part schedule. It has been decided to play only five-inning games on week days during the last half of the season.

Name Three Commissioners

The writer told of the woes that attend the office of commissioners, especially when it is impossible to gather the members into session for prompt decisions.

The board of directors re-elected the writer as chairman, with Charlie Cox, Ellwood Ledger, and Attorney James A. Chambers as the other two commissioners.

The appointment of Chambers should be a big help to the league. He was named several years ago and did efficient service. He is a former ball player.

A representative, Mr. Whiteman, Energy, requested a franchise for the Energy Independents, but as the Energy team of last season retained a franchise, another one was not given to Energy.

Carm Sacco of the New Castle O. & P. League requested a franchise for a second team of their club. J. V. Bullano represented the Independent A. A., which has a big membership in the fifth ward.

Has Been Split

It seems as though there has been a split in the South Side and had both the New Castle and Independents and the Centennials been given a franchise one would have refused to play in the loop with the other, it was stated at the meeting.

The board of directors voted to make the circuit an eight-team affair and on the vote to admit teams Croton received five votes, Independents four and the New Castle club three votes.

The board of directors has been increased to eight and the officers are: president, W. G. Andrews; vice president, Alex Samuels; secretary, Ed. Connery; treasurer, Ollie Earl; commissioners, Ed. Fritz, James Chambers and Charles Cox.

New Castle Club Signs New Hurlers

Negctiations Under Way To Secure Catcher, Second Baseman

BY ED FRITZ

Three pitchers have been signed by the New Castle team of the O. & P. League and the club is now angling for a catcher, according to Carm Sacco, business agent. As yet he is not ready to name the hurlers who have been signed and until he has the name of the catcher on paper he will keep his identity a secret.

Carm said that the club is making efforts to strengthen the team and believes that the three hurlers will provide the team with one of the best pitching staffs in the loop. Last year the pitching was weak, the infield went bad and toward the last of the season the team struck a slump.

"The reason I have not given out any information about who I have had signed is because I'm afraid that some of them will see their names in print and demand more money. Wymer is holding out for more money and I'm afraid to mention the name of the catcher for fear he will raise his figures" said Carm.

If the team can secure three good pitchers, a catcher and gets Maxim to play second base, the team will be on the road to success. The O. & P. management hopes to put a team in the field that will more than realize than ambitions. The outfield will probably remain intact and everything augurs well for a good team this season.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

It is apparent to anyone who has been in close touch with developments in baseball the last few weeks that there is a dearth of second basemen of major league caliber in baseball today.

This is proved by the fact that at least half of the major league clubs are striving desperately to mold an acceptable keystone man out of whatever material they have while combing the game for something better.

Two or three clubs have newcomers on whom they are pinning great hopes of course. The Braves have young Herb Thomas, the Phils Fresno Thompson, the Browns Spencer Adams, recently bought from the Yanks.

The Yanks, Senators, Athletics, Tigers, Giants, Cardinals are the only clubs at the writing who have good let alone great second basemen.

But is this condition unusual?

I don't believe so.

The season of 1917—just ten years ago—found the American league, for instance, with but four brilliant second sackers who played through the major part of the season. They were Bill Wamby of Cleveland, Eddie Collins of the White Sox, Jack Barry of the Red Sox and Derrill Pratt of the Yanks. Tuck Turner was fading from the picture. Morgan, Maisel, Janvrin, Bob Jones and Ernie Johnson and others were laboring at the other posts.

Cutshaw with the Dodgers, Doyle with the Cubs and Herzog with the Giants alone demanded recognition in the National.

Five years ago the American league still could boast of Collins, Wamby, Stan Harris of the Senators, McManus of the Browns and Pratt. An exceptional year.

In the National league only four men played in 100 or more games at short in 1922. They were Hornsby, Zeb Terry of the Cubs, Jim Tierney of the Pirates and Frank Parkinson of the Phils. But three of these rate as great players.

So the shortage would seem to be perpetual. There may have been times between those periods when more than a handful of men were going good at the middle sack, but none other than those mentioned have taken rank as truly great second basemen.

There is a very logical reason for this perpetual shortage, however.

The demands upon the second baseman are great. He must be able to cover that ground equally well to right or left. He must be fast with his whip in starting double plays and fast and sure as the pivot man in such plays.

One of the brainest men in baseball pointed out to me some years ago that too much emphasis is placed upon the pivot man in a double play. He pointed out that the "middle man's" efforts in a play go for naught if the man fielding the ball gets it off slowly or throws it poorly.

This only points out, however, how valuable then is the role a second baseman plays. He must be able to start two-ply killings with lightning-like speed—and "turn" the plays when fed the ball.

And speaking of playing the bag, the second baseman virtually must cover two, he being expected to cover first on certain plays.

It isn't that second basemen are rarer than other players. The demands upon them are greater. They pound to pieces quicker.

What An Outfield! By Feg Murray

There are outfields and outfields. Then there is the trio of flychasers who roam the outer gardens for the Washington Senators. They weren't bad last year, you know—Goslin, Rice and McNeely, with Joe Harris to help out, if necessary. But look whom Clark Griffith up and grabbed just after the smoke of the scandal cleared away! None other than Sir Tristram Speaker of Hubbard, Texas, the Gray Ghost, the Silver Fox—Old Spoke himself, long considered one of the greatest outfielders in the game!

So Mr. Speaker, late of Cleveland and formerly of Boston, where he and Harry Hooper and Duffy Lewis formed one of the outfields of all time, now adds his prestige and ability to make the Washington trio rank among the best collection of hitting, fielding and baserunning stars on one club. True, they may be outhit by Heilmann, Manush and Fothergill of Detroit, or Cobb, Wheat and Simmons of the Athletics, but where else in the American league can you find such a classy all-around triumvirate?

Last season Speaker hit only .304 in his 19th season, but his lifetime batting average, including 1907, when he played seven games for the Red Sox, is .347. Tris will be 39 years old next week, and in this, his Vindication Year, he wants to play ball as he never has played before. Rice and Goslin hit .337 and .354, respectively, last year, Sam stealing 25 bases and "Goose" eight. Each made over 200 hits, and they scored 203 runs between them. There is no reason why they should not continue the good work in 1927.

"Tris, Sam and the Goose"—what a trio! All three smack the old apple left-handed, and all, incidentally, are ardent divot-tees of that ancient and horrible pastime, golf. Rival batters will find plenty of "rough" and very little fairway for the balls they knock into the Washington outfield this season.

Feg Murary Says—

"Dempsey to be operated on for spinal trouble."—News headline. Many people could have told you several year ago, when Jack was busy dodging Harry Wills, that there was something wrong with his backbone.

Second Round Play In Chicago Tourney Gets Under Way

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Mar. 30.—London, Ky., and Safford, Ariz., will face each other when second round play in the National Interscholastic Basketball Tournament gets under way at the University of Chicago today.

The largest field ever gathered at the meet, representing every section of the United States, is here to battle for the National championship. It is too early as yet to get an accurate line on the most formidable contenders.

The tourney started at a fast clip yesterday when Safford defeated Franklin, N. H., 30 to 20. This pace with few exceptions was maintained throughout the first round session.

Students Cheer Basketball Men

Final Basketball Chapel Exercises Of Year Held At High School

The basketball season is over at the senior high school. This was evident Tuesday in the assembly held at the school.

The initial move was made when the team entered the stage. As has been the case at the last few basketball chapels, the students went into an uproar. Cheers were then given. Principal Frank L. Orth announced that the team would be banqueted by the Lion's club Tuesday night. By this time, however, the boys are probably ready for another meal.

This assembly practically the same as the last few, speeches, and speeches, but nevertheless it was more interesting. Everyone wanted to know why the team lost last Friday night and they were sure that the answer would be given by the members of the team. This was done to a certain extent.

The first speaker was the Acting-Captain, Walter "Baldy" McGrath. He said that the reason for losing the game to Sharon was because of the physical strain on the boys. After having participated in the W. P. I. A. L. eliminations in Pittsburgh it was mighty hard on the team to enter the state championship eliminations. He gave his heartiest congratulations to his team mates and wished them greater success next year. As a matter of fact only two members will be lost to the team next year. They are "Baldy" McGrath and Bruce Franklin. Clarence Klaber, the captain, will also be lost to the team, but he has not played in any games this semester. His loyal support and advice will be sadly missed next year, however.

Tony Ostrosky then thanked the students and faculty for their loyal support this year. Clarence Klaber told the students about the game with Philipsburg. He said that although the boys were defeated by Sharon he still believes that New Castle has the best team in the state.

Mr. Orth at this interval cited that there were nine teachers who followed the team to Penn State for the game Friday night. Arthur Sillman spoke next. He, in behalf of the team, congratulated McGrath and Franklin for their service on the team.

Bruce Franklin then was called on to speak. He wished the team future success.

Other brief speeches were given by "Tippy" Richards, Johnnie Johnson, Student Manager, Ralph Bishton, Coach Phil Bridenbaugh and Faculty Manager, Ralph Gardner.

Coach Bridenbaugh said that there wasn't much more to say, but that he wanted to thank the team for their services and that he was proud of them. Ralph Gardner gave his mighty thanks to the team also. He said that the basketball played in the eastern part of the state was very different from that played in this section, adding that a set of uniform rules should be arranged. The assembly closing the basketball season this year was then dismissed.

Mishaps have occurred on several occasions in the Oxford-Cambridge boat races in England. In 1859 the Cambridge boat sank and in 1912 both boats went under. Again, in 1925, the Oxford shell was swamped after completing only about half of the course.

Stoneham Denies That McGraw Is Willing To Unload Stock In Giants

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'l News Service

NEW YORK, March 30.—Unqualified denial that John McGraw's surreptitious visit here was prompted by a desire to sell his stock in the Giants to either Tex Rickard or "Fuzzy" Anderson, St. Louis promoter, because he had gone heavily "on the nut" in Florida real estate was entered today by Charles A. Stoneham, president of the club. The visit ended yesterday afternoon just as mysteriously as it began when McGraw boarded a train at 3:40 o'clock for Chattanooga but Stoneham neglected to explain the stealth with which this departure was achieved.

Callers Denied.

Neither did he account for the fact that the Giants office staff was instructed to inform callers that "Mr. McGraw had left town" when actually the man was conferring with Stoneham at the Hotel Commodore, four blocks away. Stoneham, in fact, denied that such a conference took place.

He accounted for McGraw's visit by declaring that illness in the Stoneham family had prevented him from meeting his manager in the south and that it had become necessary for them to get together in order to devise some cunning scheme whereby it might be possible to overcome Eddie Roush's natural repugnance to a sum like $25,000. The matter of awakening the interest of Rogers Hornsby in anything less than $120,000 for his stock in the Cardinals also was discussed at length, it was said.

To a direct question about the allegation that McGraw was trying to unload his Giant stock, Stoneham said:

"As far as I know, there's nothing to it. Mr. McGraw seemed very happy and the matter of stock wasn't mentioned. He knows that, if he wanted to sell his shares, he could get more for them from me than he could elsewhere.

"We talked about the club and, when he left, McGraw felt that he would be able to persuade Hornsby to sell his stock in the Cardinals when they got together in Chattanooga on Thursday. I understand that he will invite Roush to meet him there, too, and maybe they will be able to iron out their differences.

Far Enough.

"We have gone as far as we care to with Roush, for when I made the trade I thought he would be willing to play for the Giants for the money he was demanding and not getting in Cincinnati. It seems not, however; so we have increased our bid several times and now we will go no higher.

"Hornsby is another matter. He is in condition, is a big help to the young players and has given our club a fighting spirit it lacked during the last two years. But he is making one mistake. He is confusing the value of his stock with the value of stock that carries with it a controlling interest. Hornsby, I know, has been offered his price of $105 a share but the offer is contingent upon the necessity of the buyer getting a controlling interest. However, Sam Breadon wants to stay in baseball and won't sell, so there you are. I think, however, that McGraw will be able to straighten things out with Hornsby and his attorney, William Fahey, when they meet."

In regard to the story of McGraw's effort to dispose of his own stock, Stoneham pointed out that their agreement called for no sale of stock by either man without letting the other have first bid.

Ike Powers, Practice Pitcher, May Soon Be Full Fledged Athletic

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'l News Service

NEW YORK, March 30.—Smithsonian, wheel up another institute!

Here's one for the glass case about a man who has pitched every day for two years, yet has neither won nor lost a ball game, issued a base on balls nor struck out a man. Further than that, he has been hit daily with great frequency not to say violence but his proud record is that he never has been removed from the box.

The human contradiction is Ike Powers of Martinsburg, W. Va., a member in good standing of the Philadelphia Athletics. Perhaps it would be better to say that he is an employe of the outfit, for Ike's name won't be found on the American league rolls and the box scores have known him not at all.

At a weekly wage commensurate to his value to the club, he has been carried for two seasons merely to pitch to the batters during the pre-game practice. Ike alone does this, as Connie Mack fears that one of the regular members of the staff might be injured by a batted ball and, like a sparring partner to a champion, it hasn't much matter what happened to Ike.

However, that sort of stuff is all off now like a fat man's coat. Having taken Powers for granted these several years, the Athletics have begun to take him for a ball player. He is only 21 years old, six feet tall and weighs 180 pounds in his coat of tan. Pretty promising human material, in brief, and Ira Thomas, coach of the pitchers, seems to have discovered the fact.

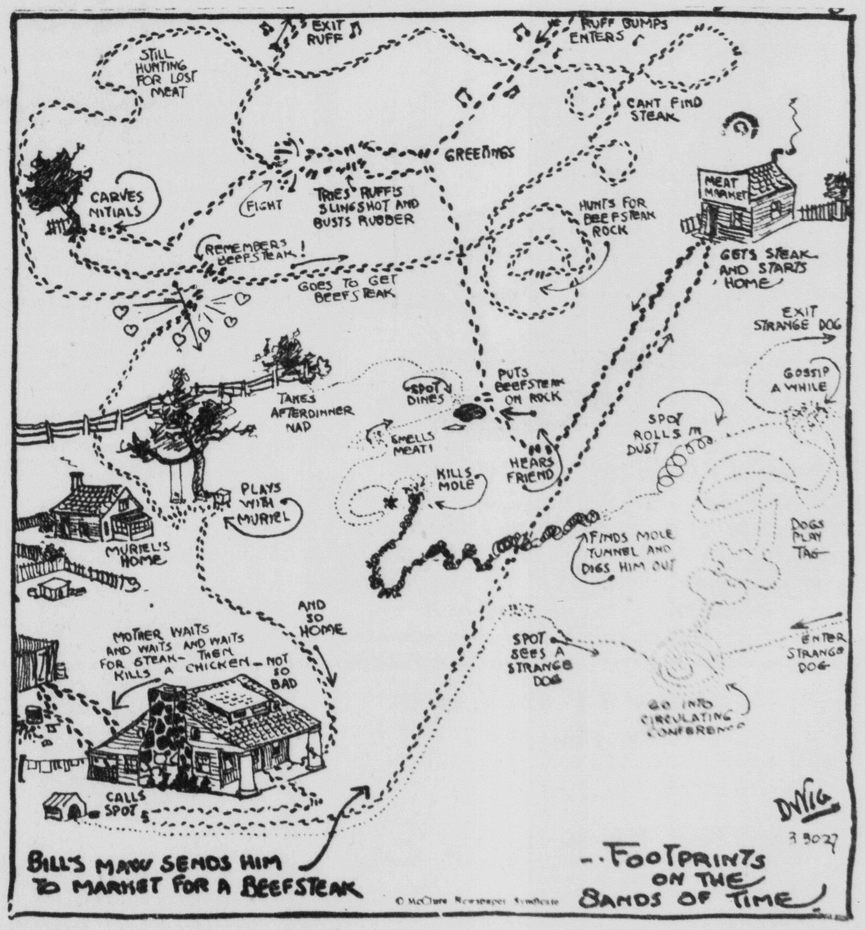

He worked on Ike all through the training trip, trying to unkink a few complexes that the young man had purposely acquired. One of these was to keep the ball in view of the batter at all times, even during his pitching motion, in order that the hitter's confidence might thrive. It is now Ike's purpose and hope to conceal the ball when it is just about to reach the batter.

He was doing that so well in the south that it seemed possible that, at a none too distant date, the Athletics might lose one batting practice star and gain a member of their regular staff, which is a pretty good trade for all concerned, even if you don't make it.

Hockey enthusiasts everywhere unite in declaring the hockey season now nearing its close to have been the best in the history of the sport in America, both in the amateur and professional branches.

McClellan in Command.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON SEPT 5, 1862, WHILE THE ADVANCE GUARD OF LEE'S CONFEDERATE ARMY LED BY "STONEWALL" JACKSON WAS MOVING THROUGH MARYLAND TO INVADE THE NORTH, GEN. POPE'S FEDERAL "ARMY OF VIRGINIA" AFTER ITS DEFEAT AT THE 2ND BATTLE OF BULL RUN WAS RETREATING HOPELESSLY TO WASHINGTON.

AS THE UNION ARMY NEARED THE CAPITAL IT WAS MET BY GEN. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, WHO HAD COMMANDED THE "ARMY OF THE POTOMAC" IN THE UNSUCCESSFUL PENINSULAR CAMPAIGN AGAINST RICHMOND, RIDING OUT WITH ORDERS TO SUPERCEDE POPE. HE WAS GREETED WITH ROUSING CHEERS BY HIS OLD REGIMENTS.

McCLELLAN'S MISSION WAS TO INTERCEPT LEE AND HE AT ONCE BEGAN A REORGANIZATION OF THE UNION FORCES WHICH WAS COMPLETED BY SEPT. 10TH. HE THEN SET OUT ON THE MARCH AND REACHED FREDERICK ON THE 12TH. SEVERAL DAYS AFTER THE SOUTHERN ARMY HAD PASSED THROUGH.

AT FREDERICK ON THE NIGHT OF SEPT. 13TH, A LOST DISPATCH FROM LEE TO D. H. HILL, FOUND BY A FEDERAL SOLDIER, WAS BROUGHT TO McCLELLAN. IT REVEALED LEE'S PLANS AND SHOWED THAT THE CONFEDERATE ARMY WAS DIVIDED.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar 30.—Heavy selling of the low-priced industrial stocks, the oils and motors and a few specialties in the early trading unsettled the whole list, and the trend of prices was again downward. The outstanding exceptions were the southwestern railroad stocks, which moved upward sharply under the lead of Missouri Pacific.

Dodge Motor, common and preferred, was compelled to absorb an enormous volume of liquidation and short selling, on rumors of greatly slackened production and the prospect of a merger with powerful competitors. The preferred stock dropped an additional 3 points to 73, while the common broke below 19 for the first time since flotation by the Dillon Read bankers.

All of the specialties were pounded severely by the bears, who also opened up their heavy guns on the Independent oil stocks, selling Marland, Phillips and others in this group in blocks of from 500 to 5,000 shares.

7-point break in Pan American Western Class B to $19 a share followed the omission of the quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share, due at this time.

Call money unchanged at 4½ per cent.

Women Lobbyists

Mrs. Maud Wood Park.

Does the term "lobbyist" imply reproach? In Washington is a group of women representing national women's organizations. It is called the "front-door-lobby" because it purposes are never concealed and its methods are direct and open. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, leader in work for women's interests, declares that such a lobby that is altruistic, that speaks for bodies of citizens on matters not financial, furnishing information in regard to obscure or misunderstood points, is helpful and the members are not afraid to be called lobbyists.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Eggs are cheap and fresh these spring days so why not use them for lunch and supper? Poached in tomatoes they are a different dish from the ordinary poached eggs—plenty good enough for "company". It is always well to include a fresh fruit or green in any spring menu.

Eggs Poached in Tomatoes
Gingerbread
Toast Tea

TODAY'S RECIPES

Gingerbread—Two eggs, one cup molasses, one-half cup sugar, one cup buttermilk, one teaspoon soda, one-half cup butter, two teaspoons ginger, two and one-half cups sifted flour. Bake slowly. You may use a whole cup of sugar in this recipe instead of the one-half cup if you want it to be more like cake and use one teaspoon of cinnamon and one of ginger, instead of two of ginger.

Eggs Poached in Tomatoes—Put into a frying pan one tablespoon of butter, one tablespoon of flour; heat until frothy; stir into it one and one-half teacups of tomato and then strain into the frying pan a dash of cayenne pepper and salt to taste; cook until creamy, and drop in eggs, baste often and when whites are set remove and put each egg on a slice of buttered toast and pour sauce around them.

SUGGESTIONS

Mends Rubber Pants.

Mothers whose children wear rubber pantie protectors will be interested to know that they can be mended with adhesive tape. If proper care is taken in putting the patches on they will last some time.

Homework.

Have you a pleasant, well-lighted place for your child to do his homework from school? An attractive workshop makes a great deal of difference in the desire to work and the work itself. If you cannot afford to buy him a little work desk, see that he has a table that is just for him and his homework. It will mean a great deal in his studies.

HIRAM JOHNSON OUT OF PRESIDENTIAL RACE FOR GOOD, HE AVOWS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 30.—Of the 96 senators, there may be 95 aspirants for the presidency, but no more, Hiram Johnson is through.

"I am one member of the senate who has had the presidential germ and from whom it has been thoroughly eradicated," he said today.

The Californian, who fought for the prize in 1920 and made the only contest against President Coolidge for the Republican nomination in 1924, was asked about his 1928 intentions when he called at the white house. He talked to the president about Boulder Canyon dam and predicted passage of the bill providing for it at the next session of congress.
